Call to Worship (Romans 8:1-2, 15)

There is therefore now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus.

For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus has set us free from the law of sin and death.

You did not receive a spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you have received a spirit of adoption.

And we cry “ABBA! Father!”

✦ Songs of Praise Worship Team

*O Praise the Name
Before the Throne of God Above*

Prayer and The Lord’s Prayer

Our Father, Who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name, Thy Kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from the evil one. For Thine is the kingdom, and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

Communion Instructions for Lent: Communion will be served by intinction each Sunday during Lent. The bread we are using is gluten free, so everyone will be able to participate from the same loaf. After the Pastor has consecrated the bread and juice, he will take the communion and serve the assisting Elders, and then he will give the elements to the Elders who will create two stations at the front of the sanctuary. The Deacons will then begin to guide the congregation forward, starting at the back of the sanctuary with the pews on the window sides of the aisle. Those sitting on each window side will come forward as the Deacons instruct and return to their seats in the same aisle. When everyone on the window side has been served, the Deacons will begin guiding those seated in the center pews to come forward in the same way, beginning again from the back of the sanctuary. For anyone who has difficulty coming forward, you may remain in your seat, and an Elder will come to you with the communion elements. If you do not wish to dip your bread in the cup, you may take an individual cup from the altar table.

"God answered their prayers, because they trusted Him."
