

A LIFE OF PREPARATION, A DAY OF RECOGNITION

Three Prayers for Moms

1. That you will have a sense of _____. Ref: V10

I'm praying that you will develop a sense of confidence in who you are and what God is doing through you.

During the seasons in which no one seems to notice the extent of all you do, I hope that you will have a quiet confidence, a strong assurance, a sense of self-worth that you are God's woman, and that you are serving him in a way that brings him glory.

2. That you can _____ at the days to come. Ref: V25

Women of faith, this is what I pray for you, that God will be at work in your life in such a way -- and that you will experience his blessings to such an extent -- that you can look forward to tomorrow with joyful anticipation.

The thief comes only to steal, and kill, and destroy; I have come that they may have life, and have it to the full. John 10:10

My prayer is that you will have a sense of courage as you face the future.

If you put your all your hope in your husband, you'll be disappointed.

The woman who is able to laugh at the days to come is the woman who takes initiative, who takes responsibility, who takes action.

She is clothed with strength and dignity.

This is not a woman who gets walked on.

This is not a woman who easily accepts being treated with disrespect.

This is a woman with a strong sense of whom she is and who God made her to be.

My prayer for you is that you will be able to laugh at the days to come because you have gained from God the strength and dignity required for one to face the future with courage.

3. That you will receive the _____ you deserve. Ref: V28

My prayer is that your children will bless you. Not just today, but every day! Not just in the words they speak to you, but also in the words they speak about you to others.

My prayer is that you receive the honor you deserve for the job you have done.
