From the Pastor's Heart

Hi Church Family,
I am so happy to share some really exciting news with you. The Saturday Night Church is off to a great start. We had over 80 adults and children at our first service!

We now have a place to serve and worship with those who have a difficult time making it to a Sunday Service. Please invite some friends, neighbors, or someone who has been out of church for a while. A bottle of water and cookies will greet you. The service is at 5:00 pm. Steve Morgan is preaching a message entitled: "The Greatest Teacher Who Ever Lived." Early birds get the table and a special treat.

If you are a deacon or a deaconess your job description in the Bible gives you a great promise. "Let them serve as deacons. Those who have served well gain an excellent standing and great assurance in their faith in Jesus Christ."
1st Timothy 3:10,13

Thanks you for your service. The blessing is there for one who serves.

We have a need for deacons and deaconess and the Lord could use your kindness and your love.

We need one dozen men or women from our deacons and deaconess to assist with home communion with our shut-ins and those in nursing homes.

This visit can happen in between our Sunday service times or in the afternoon. You will be thoroughly trained by Richard Eident and Pastor Steve and paired with an Elder initially.

Please call into the church and indicate your commitment to serve. Kenny Jones signed up immediately, we need eleven others. It is so more blessed to give than receive.

May God Enlarge His Territory, Pastor

Ladies Salad Supper

All ladies are invited to a Salad Supper on Tuesday, June 21st at 5:30 pm in Campbell Hall. Please bring a salad to share and an apron. Table service will be provided.

News from Paul

I hope this finds you doing well. What a great weekend for FCC! The men's breakfast went well with around 15 or so in attendance and there were 80 plus for the Saturday night service kickoff! Sunday morning's weather was so wonderful I was able to ride the motorcycle to church and at church we were able to have the narthex entrance doors and also the prayer garden doors open! I also really enjoy the breeze coming in through the windows at home and it is always a plus to shut the air conditioner off to save a few pennies on the utility bill.

Miss Evelyn's foot is healing the way it is supposed to and she was able to help me mow the yard recently. Yippee! Seriously though, it is nice when the two of us are able to work together in keeping the yard work up. It might seem trivial, but to have her outside with me helps the time go by easier. However, I have wondered from time to time what we were thinking when we purchased the extra lot next to us. It has added more mowing for us and there is a tree which drops a lot of limbs when the wind picks up. It is nice to have the extra space though. Isn't it odd how we are never satisfied?

As you are probably aware by now, Evlyn Horn has gone home to the Lord. In the few short years I have known her it has been a great experience. Evlyn was one of those people you could count on for being at church each Sunday serving the Lord by serving others. From getting the coffee ready and making sure she was in the church office to help the Elders put the offering away to simply being at the welcome center to greet everyone who would darken the door way. Throughout her time at FCC Evlyn felt committed to serve in these roles each week and I am certain there were many more I am unaware of she enjoyed serving in. I enjoyed the joking her and I used to share with each other. I am sure many of you have enjoyed and can share similar experiences.

Well friends, it is time for me to sign off for now. The sun is shining and there is a nice breeze blowing. I think I will go outside to enjoy a cup of Joe and watch the dogs run around the yard chasing each other and the squirrels. Have a great rest of the week and remember whatever it is your mom always told you to remember. It was usually something we thought was crazy at the time, but later found it helpful information.

In His service, Pauly
