

The Worship Connection

Text: 1st Chronicles 16:1-43

What is our reason for being here? To give God that which he is d_____: our worship and our p_____.

Without our undivided attention, worship can never take place.

Lifestyle Worship means that worship becomes not just a daily experience, but an around-the-clock experience.

There are five keys that we will focus on:

1. We give God our undivided attention in what we choose to "r_____ the m_____."

David is telling us: Remember God's faithfulness in the past, and remember what he has promised to do in the future. Ref: 1st Chronicles 16:12,15,16

Do you know what that word "ascribe" means? It means "give God credit." Ref: 1st Chronicles 16: 28,29

2. We give God our undivided attention in what we choose to r_____ in the world around us. Ref: 1st Chronicles 16:31-33

You worship better when you recognize God's hand at work all around you, because it keeps you focused on giving him your undivided attention.

3. We give God our undivided attention in what we choose to s_____. Ref: 1st Chronicles 16:8, 9, 24

All throughout the psalms you see there is a close connection between who you worship and what you talk about. One that comes to mind... Ref: Psalm 9:11

Make God the hero of every conversation.

4. We give God our undivided attention in what we choose to a_____. Ref: 1st Chronicles 16:36

Throughout the day comment after comment is made asking for your "Amen." What will you do? Which ideas will you affirm?

5. We give God our undivided attention in what we choose to d__ n_____. Ref: Romans 12:1

David understood that by serving his family he was serving God — and in our service to God, we worship him. Ref: 1st Chronicles 16:43

The more you focus on blessing others in the name of Jesus Christ, the more he receives your undivided attention. Ref: Colossians 3:23
