

Worship the King Jesus
Text Matthew 26:1-13

Jesus is worthy of our w_____

I am calling this series of teachings “Worship The King,” because in Matthew chapter 26-28 we see—perhaps more than any other throughout the Gospel---the deity, the majesty, and the royalty of Jesus.

Someday, possibly a day not far away, every person in Heaven and on E_____ and Under the E_____ will worship Jesus. Ref: Philippians 2:9, 10

If we confess Him now, if we worship Him---- We will bow our knees in “Heaven on Earth” and we will be blessed forever and in His p_____ forever.

Your past doesn't matter and it doesn't have to prevent you from giving your life to Jesus today. It doesn't have to prevent you from receiving the gift of the Holy Spirit and Eternal Life in a place of eternal joy---- today.

I think one reason Christ created the c_____ is that there would be a place to bury the failures of the past.

Three Key Ideas This Story Teaches Us About Loving Jesus.

#1 Jesus Is Worth the Very Best You Have To Give

The point of the story is that we should be as extravagant in our service to him as we can afford to be.

Do you want to learn to worship him in a way that pleases his heart? Give him your b____. Give him the best part of your day, the best part of your week.

#2 He is Worth the Criticism You'll Face

Ministering to Jesus, worshiping him, sacrificing for him is never a waste. The disciples missed the point.

When you give Jesus your best you'll be blessed.

#3 He is Worth Your Attention Right Now

Jesus is telling his disciples in today's scripture: The most important thing in our lives is our d_____ to him, and the most important time for expressing this devotion is right now.

The difference between the woman and the disciples is that she worshiped Jesus in the p_____ tense.

Jesus is worthy of your attention now.

Give him the best that you have to give, the best part of your resources, the best part of your time, your talent, and your treasure.
