CHRISTMAS EVE SERVICES

This year we will be offering two (2) services of worship on Christmas Eve. The Traditional 11:00 p.m. service will continue to be the main service of worship that evening. It will highlight our choir, traditional scripture readings and a live nativity. Of course the evening will close with the lighting of candles and the singing of Silent Night.

At 7:00 p.m. on Christmas Eve there will be a Family Candlelight Service. This service will feature our Praise Team and will include the singing of Christmas Carols and accounts of the Christmas Story. This service will be more mature than our Children's Service in the past but will still be simple and fun in a way that will hold the attention of our members and families.

People of all ages are welcome at both services.

CHILDREN'S CHRISTMAS PLAY

Mark your calendars for the Christmas Play. The Children's Play will be held on Sunday, December 20th beginning at 7:00 p.m. in the Sanctuary of Calvary Center. Refreshments will immediately follow. We may even have a special visitor dressed in red.

CHRISTMAS CHORAL CONCERT

The Annual "Gift of Music" offered to the community will be presented on Sunday, December 13, 2009 at 7:00 p.m. in the Sanctuary of Trinity Center.

This gift is one Presbyterian Women are always proud to offer.

The musical program will be under the direction of Syndria Lowe, our director using the many talents of our church family.

Of course, there will be cookies and punch. So, we are asking that you please bake a batch of your favorite cookies and set them aside for us. There will also be a sign-up sheet in the Narthex of Calvary Center.

Tell Someone “The Story”

Recently I was leading a bible study at Haveloch Commons and we were getting a preview into Advent with the account of Mary and Joseph fleeing to Egypt. This happened after the birth of Jesus so that they might escape the wrath of King Herod. Herod set out to kill the young Savior by murdering all of the children in the town of Bethlehem. What horrible days those must have been living under the senseless wrath of a king who had no concern for his people other than how they could bring him personal glory and power. We learned much about the character of Joseph as he received instruction from God and in a great measure of faith uprooted his new family and took them to Egypt. In our conversation we thought about how that year in Egypt must have strengthened Mary and Joseph as a couple and as a family. After they returned to their homeland from a year in a foreign country they surely had a sense of empowerment and renewed strength to face their hometown with a reality that few if any would believe or understand. The hardships they faced in Bethlehem and in Egypt forged their character into a shape that would be used by God from that point into eternity. And each step of their journey was ordained by God himself and much of it was spoken of by the prophets hundreds of years earlier.

Our Bible is full of fascinating accounts just like this one. It was my challenge to the members of that Bible study and now also to each of you to tell the Story of Christ's birth this season. The story is not as well known as you might suspect and many of our children and grandchildren would love to hear it from our very own lips regardless of how many times they have heard the Scripture read. Take some time and study up on a part of the Christmas story and make time to tell it to someone you love. They will be blessed and so will you.

Blessings in Christ's Birth,

Justin

Rev. Justin Amsler

“This is how the birth of Jesus Christ came about: His mother Mary was pledged to be married to Joseph, but before they came together, she was found to be with child through the Holy Spirit. All this took place to fulfill what the Lord said through the prophet: “The virgin will be with child and will give birth to a son, and they will call him Immanuel” -which means, “God with us.”

Matthew 1:18, 22, 23

TUESDAY MORNING PRAYER - REV. JUSTIN AMSLER

Each Tuesday morning at 8:00 a.m. I make my way to the pastor's study of Calvary Center. It is a great place to gather to pray for our Church and for the ministry of each of our members. If you are free at 8:00 on Tuesday mornings come join with me in praying for the life of our church. You will be blessed and it goes without saying that the power of prayer is very real. Many churches have been blessed by groups of faithful people gathering to pray that the lost would be saved and the people would be healed and strengthened for ministry. Jesus calls us to stand out in prayer and petition the Lord to work in our midst. There is no better use of our time.

DECEMBER/JANUARY MEMORY VERSES

In order to lower stress levels for the holiday season, we will review memory verses rather than introducing new memory verses for the months of December and January. The Memory Verse Mystery Person (MVMP) is still going to visit in December and January, so this will be a good time to “make-up” memory verses that you may not have memorized.

So far, Kindergarten and 1st grade class and the 4th, 5th, and 6th grade class are tied for the classes with the most memorized verses.

Adults, Junior and Senior High

September	Psalm 23	The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not be in want. He makes me lie down in green pastures, He leads me beside quiet waters, He restores my soul. He guides me in paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for You are with me; Your rod and Your staff, they comfort me. You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies. You anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
October	Matthew 5:3-10	"Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted. Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth. Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled. Blessed are the merciful, for they will be shown mercy. Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God. Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called sons of God. Blessed are those who are persecuted because of righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
November	1 Peter 5:8-9	"Be self-controlled and alert. Your enemy the devil prowls around like a roaring lion looking for someone to devour. Resist him, standing firm in the faith, because you know that your brothers throughout the world are undergoing the same kind of sufferings.

CONGREGATIONAL MEETING

Congregational
Meeting
Sunday, January 24,

On Sunday January 24th we will be holding our annual Congregational Meeting immediately following the 10:45 a.m. service of worship. There will be four items of business on the agenda, (1) the approval of the Pastor's Terms of Call, (2) the election of officers, (3) the review of the congregation's annual report, and (4) updating of our church by-laws.

Session has decided to condense our congregational meeting format to include just one meeting each year. In the past we have had two separate meetings, one for the nomination and election of officers and one for the review of the annual report and pastor Terms of Call. It is acceptable in the Presbyterian Church (USA) and common among Presbyterian Churches to only have one meeting. To officially make the change our congregational By-Laws will be amended by a vote of the congregation at the January meeting. In the new format, officers will be installed each year in the service of worship on the last Sunday in January and their terms will begin on February 1st of each year.
