The Cobb Salad romaine, chopped egg, bacon, chicken, avocado, tomato, blue cheese..... 14

One night back in 1937, at this very location, the Brown Derby owner, Bob Cobb, hungrily searched the restaurant's kitchen for a snack. He combined ingredients on a bed of lettuce and swiped some bacon for the finishing touch. It was so good that Sid Grauman (Grauman's Chinese Theater) who had been with Cobb that fateful night asked the next day for a "Cobb Salad". Thus the famous salad was born.
