February 2017 Life Lines

Dear Millbrook family,

I greet you in the name of our risen Savior, King Jesus, the one who lives and reigns forever and ever. I am excited about all the great events that are happening in the life of our church in the coming weeks. Let me share a few of these with you. Saturday is an important day for our missions work. It's the 8th annual Mardi Gras Run. All the proceeds go to help provide young people opportunities to serve the needy in our community and the Louisiana flood relief efforts. I hope you'll find a way to support this great ministry. You can go to our church web site, and find a number ways you can get involved.

This weekend we will finish our sermon series on Parenting. Sunday afternoon at 3:00 pm Wesley Morris will teach about social media and how parents can help their children deal with all the issues that come with access to social media. Starting at 4:30 our United Methodist Men will kick off the New Year with their first meeting, followed by a fun Super Bowl party.

The second week of February, we will begin a 3 week series on celebrating how God is using our church to go beyond our walls with the life changing grace of Jesus Christ.

And we are making preparations for six Lenten dinners. Every Wednesday night we will gather in the Fellowship Hall for a great meal, an enriching time of making new friends, and to hear an inspired sermon from a great line up of guest preachers. Also, I want to invite you to pray about a study titled, Restored, Finding Redemption in our Mess. We are inviting the whole church to read and study this book together during Lent. There are two ways you can participate. (1) Our Sunday school classes are being invited to read, study, and discuss during the six weeks of Lent, or (2) you can come on Sunday afternoon at 3:00 pm to join a study group.

Starting in March, I am going to be teaching a confirmation class for our youth who are considering membership in the church. If you are interested, let me know. I would love to have you come along on the journey.

Again, pray that we would be the family of God that Jesus has created us to be.

Thanks for your prayers and patience with me as I continue to learn about Millbrook. Know that Judy and I love you and we look forward to seeing you this Sunday at the church where God loves is made real.

God Bless, Jerry
