

Position Title: Director of Technical Services (QC Manager)

Position Category: Technical Services (Quality Control)

Location: MS, AL, TN and LA

Experience Required: 3-5 years minimum engineering experience

Degree(s) Required: Civil Engineering Degree

Job Description: Prominent Jackson-based construction materials company has need for a professional engineer with a solid quality control background. Duties include implementation of the ready-mix concrete quality control program which consists of conducting laboratory and field tests, site inspection, managing the program's database, training operations and sales personnel, being the primary interface with DOT and other government entities, supporting sales initiatives, and supervising five technical services employees.

Career opportunity with industry leader and potential for advancement. Excellent benefits package with competitive salary commensurate with experience and education. Computer skills a must.

Please send resume to: ptrussell@sstconsulting.org