09/04/16 - "Song of Songs - Rejection"

MONTEREYCHURCH

WELCOME: Have you considered serving? Based on your gifts and passions, what area of our church family would be a great place for you to start serving twice a month?

WORSHIP: Worship Playlist

WORD: Read Song of Songs 5:2-6:3

What part of the sermon and/or scripture stuck out to you, and why?

Why is it so dangerous to simply rely on the 'status' of the covenant to find satisfaction and intimacy? (Hint: It's abiding/remaining in the covenant that matters...)

How can you can abide and remain committed to the covenant relationship so that it remains fresh?

What are some of the immediate consequences of giving AND receiving rejection within a relationship?

As the woman is talking to the Daughters of Jerusalem - we see it is not what she says about her man, but the WAY she speaks of him. How does the WAY we say things, or the WAY we privately/publically treat our spouse (significant other, church family) affect others' view of them?

As we focus on the redemptive cross - How do we see Christ making Himself vulnerable to us? What are the direct consequences of rejecting Christ and His covenant with us? What are the temporal/eternal benefits of abiding in His covenant?

WITNESS: Have you made it a point to invite a friend to church lately? Pray for the Holy Spirit to open your eyes to who He is leading you to share the gospel with this week.
