Over the past forty-five years, Ron Lindner has become a world-renowned sport fishing leader. He and his brother Al were co-founders of Lindy Tackle as well as In-Fisherman, Inc., which has become North America's largest multimedia sport fishing network. The In-Fisherman magazine, In-Fisherman Television, as well as radio shows, books, videos, calendars, website, and professional walleye tournament circuit are all a part of this organization. Today, Ron and Al and their sons are still highly involved in the sport fishing industry and are creative forces behind Lindner Media Productions
