

Olympic Prayer

Many nations are coming together in South Korea this week to compete at the Olympics. What a perfect opportunity to take advantage of two beautiful areas designed for reflection and meditation at Morningside: the Prayer Room and the Gethsemane Garden. As Christians, we can pray for the athletes, the nations they represent, and also for the missionaries that serve in those countries. Times like these remind us of God's love in Christ towards all people.

Senior Adult Trip The Creation and Ark Encounter Preview

Sunday, February 25
7:15 P.M. Fellowship Hall

A four-day journey (October 19-22) through the Blue Ridge Mountains of North Carolina and Tennessee and on to the beautiful state of Kentucky awaits you and friends. Contact Jack Dodds about the scheduled places of interest, which promise to be both educational and entertaining.

Be sure to come to the preview with Tammy Sanders, a representative with Christian Tours. She will provide additional information and answer any questions you may have. If you pay the $200 deposit at that time, you will receive a discount on the total amount of the trip. Door prizes will be given away to participants.

Men's Small Group Bible Study

Unspoken:

What Men Won't Talk About and Why Beginning in March

Johnny Hunt takes a close look at how men can have a deeper revelation into who they are and how they can become the man God made them to be. Men, if you are interested in learning how you can strengthen your relationship with Christ through Bible-centered teaching, please call the Church Office. The day, time, and location will be tailored to meet the needs of those who wish to participate. Pastor Steven and Mike Warner and will serve as the facilitators.

Cost: $10 for the book

Training the Twelve Peter: The Impulsive Disciple Luke 22:31-34

1. Impulsiveness is destructive without a secure foundation. (22:31-32)
2. Self-resolve is not a secure enough foundation to restrain our impulses. (22:33)
3. Trusting Christ will transform our impulsiveness into steadfastness. (22:34)

 LEADER: Trust in the LORD with all your heart, and do not rely on your own understanding; think about Him in all your ways, and He will guide you on the right paths.
CONGREGATION: With what shall I come before the LORD and bow down before the exalted God? Shall I come before him with burnt offerings? Shall I offer my firstborn for my transgressions, the fruit of my body for the sin of my soul?
 LEADER: He has told you what is good and what it is the LORD requires of you.
CONGREGATION: To act justly, to love mercy, and to walk humbly with your God.
 LEADER: And what command has the Lord given to us?
CONGREGATION: To love one another. As he has loved us, so must we love one another. By this, shall all know that we are His disciples, if we love one another. (Micah 6:6,8; John 13:34)

Training the Twelve - New Sermon Series

During the months of February and March, Pastor Steven will consider Jesus' personal relationship with twelve ordinary men who impacted the world. This series will help us learn from Christ's training of these disciples, model the way they spread the gospel, and grow in our own relationship to the Master. This is an excellent opportunity to invite your family members, friends, and neighbors to worship with us.

February 11	Simon Peter	Luke 22:31-34
February 18	Andrew and Phillip	John 6:5-9

Focus on Women's Missionary Union (WMU) February 12-18

WMU challenges believers to follow the example of Jesus, step out into the world to share the gospel, and cultivate relationships to demonstrate the love of Christ. This Wednesday, February 14, several members of WMU will lead Prayer Meeting. We invite you to join others in the Fellowship Hall at 6:00 P.M. to learn of their ministry in missions.
