Our annual BBQ Sale will be on Friday, October 6. Ticket requests are going great! If you have not already gotten your tickets, please go ahead and get your tickets. We need to know by Tuesday, September 26 how many tickets you have sold. We encourage every family to do what you can to help us in selling 2,000 chicken plates! Reminder that your child's class will get $3.50 credit for every plate that is sold! Thank you!

Many are already hard at work getting items for the auction or class tables. It will be a fun-filled night for the family with games, auction, and activities. This year as in the past, we will have lots of different food items available. At the end of the evening we will have our traditional crowning of royalty. Don't miss it. Invite family and friends to join us as we support MCCA!
