CREATING CHURCH LEADERS

it's about leadership

You'll be surprised by our surroundings. Omaha is a city of almost a million, driven by entrepreneurship. This is where world changers live, and this is the place that not only feeds the world but touches all aspects of it.

What better place to put a college that is intent on changing the world one local church at a time! We are clear on our mission to CREATE CHURCH LEADERS. We are looking for a select few who want to be challenged daily in the classroom, halls, labs, green spaces of our campus, as well as in our city to go out and lead the next generation of growing churches both in the U.S. and abroad.

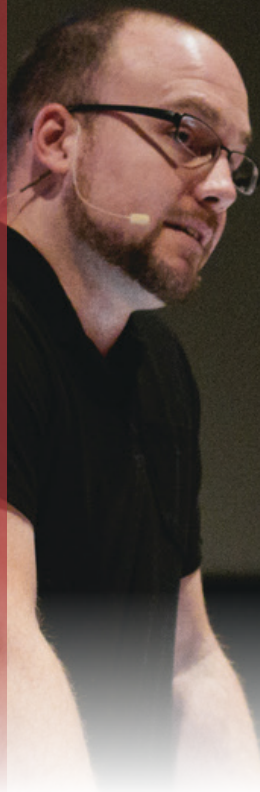

This is Omaha – a city that feeds the world. We are Nebraska Christian College – people who want to change the world forever. We are so passionate about our mission that we are announcing a bold, new initiative to further focus our future together with you.

theinstitute

The Institute for Church Leadership is on the campus of Nebraska Christian College. It hosts events and small gatherings with national ministry practitioners for three reasons:

1. Give students face time with the best people out in their fields doing ministry – senior pastors, worship leaders, executive pastors, youth pastors, children’s pastors, and missionaries.
2. Help students build a network of current regional and national church leaders so that upon graduation the school can partner with them in their ministry careers.
3. Provide a place for alumni and regional church leaders to continue to grow through education, encouragement, and resources long after their college years.

the GIG promise

A MINISTRY JOB – OR YOUR MONEY BACK****

We are so confident that our plans to equip you for ministry are real and measurable that we will guarantee all Institute Leaders a ministry position that meets our qualifications for where we'd want our graduates to be—placed in one of the 10,000 growing churches in America.

Hey, we are people, too, and we just think in today's economy, you ought to Get It Guaranteed as much as possible. We know that you are listening to God's call on your life. It takes faith to follow Him as He leads you into ministry. Our job in this partnership between you and God is to make sure you land somewhere suitable for you upon graduation. We not only steer you to a ministry, but we coach you for a year once you are there.

**Nothing amazing comes without fine print. Read the details.

We know that investing in an education with us is a serious commitment by you and those who are helping you get to Omaha. So we are going to return that investment. Should you agree to the conditions** of the G.I.G. Promise, we are willing to place you in ministry and walk into your future with you to ensure success as much as possible. Yes, like all awesome deals, there is some fine print that you should read and agree to do!

We make this commitment to you because nationwide, on average, ministers get burned out, and quit after their first 18 months in ministry. The work of God's Kingdom is far too important to let good pastors fall through the cracks. If this doesn't happen after four years here, we will refund your tuition costs. It's that simple.

THE FINE PRINT

Nebraska Christian promises ministry placement within 90 days after graduation, or we will repay you all of your tuition costs that you have had over the course of your enrollment.

Our commitment to you is that this ministry placement role will be:

- a living wage as defined by that community
- in a growing church that we consider on mission and purpose (or a dynamic church planting opportunity)

In other words, it's not just any job; it's one that you would actually desire.

Students must:

1. Meet all of the 4 for 3 Promise criteria listed.
2. Participate in ministry placement activities during their senior year provided by The Institute & take the job!
3. Apply to churches approved by the school that will partner with us to ensure success.

THE CHURCH IS THE HOPE OF THE WORLD.
THE CHURCH NEEDS GREAT LEADERS.

We need the best and the brightest men and women to be called into ministry. Come live and learn in an environment that models what leadership could be in the Church for the next generation. You need an environment that will help you flourish and grow well past your college years. Get coached through the first year of your ministry while you are there and receive coaching for your church, as well, if that is desired.

We know that we are called to place 2,500 church leaders in growing churches across America. We believe in this calling so much that we are doing whatever is necessary to retain and train leaders like you, whom God is calling to ministry and join us. We exist to ensure your success.

Our mission is to create church leaders.
