

ORDER OF WORSHIP

The Lord's Day ✠ Sunday, June 22, 2014 ✠ 11:00 a.m.

Rev. James R. Carter, Senior Pastor

SCRIPTURE FOR SILENT MEDITATION and PRAYER

John 14:15-17 (ESV)

If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and He will give you another Helper, to be with you forever, even the Spirit of Truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees Him nor knows Him. You know Him, for He dwells with you and will be in you.

I dreamed I went to heaven, and you were there with me, we walked upon the streets of gold, beside the crystal sea. We heard the angels singing, and someone called your name; we turned and saw a young man, and he was smiling as he came. And he said, "Friend, you may not know me now," and then he said, "but wait; you used to teach my Sunday school when I was only eight. And every week you would say a prayer before the class would start. And one day when you said that prayer, I asked Jesus in my heart. Thank you for giving to the Lord. I am a life that was changed. Thank you for giving to the Lord, I am so glad you gave." Then another man stood before you and said, "Remember the time a missionary came to your church and his pictures made you cry? You didn't have much money, but you gave it anyway. Jesus took the gift you gave and that's why I'm here today." One by one they came, far as the eye could see; each life somehow touched by your generosity. Little things that you had done, sacrifices made; unnoticed on the earth, in heaven now proclaimed. And I know up in heaven you're not supposed to cry, but I am almost sure there were tears in your eyes. As Jesus took your hand and you stood before the Lord, He said, "My child, look around you, for great is your reward." Thank you for giving to the Lord, for I am a life that was changed. Thank you for giving to the Lord, I am so glad you gave!

CONFESSION OF FAITH

Apostles' Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty, maker of Heaven and earth and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost, the holy catholic (universal) church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting.

CONGREGATIONAL RESPONSE

READING OF THE SCRIPTURES

Psalm 96:1-5 (ESV)

Oh sing to the LORD a new song; sing to the LORD, all the earth! Sing to the LORD, bless his name; tell of his salvation from day to day. Declare his glory among the nations, his marvelous works among all the peoples! For great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised; he is to be feared above all gods. For all the gods of the peoples are worthless idols, but the LORD made the heavens.

Pastor: The grass withers, the flower fades,

Isaiah 40:8 (ESV)

OFFERTORY

Calvary's Mountain

K. Lee Scott

Sanctuary Choir; Romeo DeMarco, Conductor;

Gibson Dorcé, Soloist; Cecily DeMarco, Organist; Eric Wilson, Pianist

Jesus died on Calvary's mountain, long time ago, and salvation's rolling fountain now freely flows. Once His voice in tones of pity melted in woe, and he wept over Judah's city long time ago. On His head the dews of midnight fell, long ago; now a crown of dazzling sunlight sits on His brow. Jesus died yet lives forever, no more to die. Bleeding Jesus, blessed Savior, now reigns on high. Children, let your lights be burning in hope of heaven, waiting for the Lord's returning at dawn or evening. When He comes, a voice from heaven shall pierce the tomb, "Come, ye blessed of my Father: children, come home."

WELCOME TO NEW PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Our Vision - New Presbyterian Church desires to be a congregation that impacts and influences our community and culture for the glory of God. We strive to foster an environment of grace, and work to deepen relationships of trust, in which there is genuine fellowship, which is defined by a spirit of acceptance, affirmation and accountability.

Our Mission is to proclaim the gospel of Jesus Christ, and to equip members to faithfully serve and obey His commands. Our goal is to joyfully and practically live out our calling to "glorify God and enjoy Him forever." Our mission is defined by Four Pillars: Reverent Worship, Evangelism, Biblical World & Life View, and Reformed Theology.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Welcome Center - Be sure to visit the Welcome Center in the lobby for information about our many ministries and events. CDs of the Worship Service, birthday & anniversary lists, prayer requests and praise reports may all be found at the Welcome Center.

2015 Officer Nomination Process

Benevolence

The Deacon Benevolence Fund is supported by your love gifts and through your gifts we are able to help our fellow brothers and sisters at NPC. Some of the needs we have been able to cover are: medical expenses, rent, mortgage, food, and gas. In addition, participation opportunities include Helping Hands meals, church rides & general transportation. Please contact the Diaconate for needs. A special offering is collected once per month.

Prayer Shawl Ministry: Purpose - to minister to our members and their families. We welcome anyone who would like to join us for knitting or crocheting these shawls. If you don't know how, we will teach you. We will even supply you with the materials that you will need. It is a fun time of fellowship as well! Bring your lunch and join us Fridays at 11:30 a.m. Please let us know of any needs in your family that we may not be aware of, and those who would benefit from receiving a prayer shawl. “...that their hearts may be encouraged, being knit together in love, to reach all the riches of full assurance of understanding and the knowledge of God's mystery, which is Christ,” (Colossians 2:2 ESV)

God Dependence

The mind of man plans his way, but the Lord directs his steps" (Proverbs 16:9).

George Müller resolved to arise each morning early to read and meditate upon his daily Bible passage several hours before the rest of the household stirred. His priority of Bible reading and prayer gave him both an orientation toward God's voice throughout the day and the serenity of heart that allowed him to remain attentive in the face of obstacles.

This habit of resting upon God's character took the particular form of waiting upon God's answers and timing, both infinitely better than anything he could devise. He said three years before his death, "I never remember, in all [of] my Christian course . . . that I ever sincerely and patiently sought to know the will of God by the teaching of the Holy Ghost through the instrumentality of the Word of God, but [that] I have always been directed rightly. But if honesty of heart and uprightness before God were lacking or if I did not patiently wait upon God for instruction, or if I preferred the counsel of my fellow men to the declarations of the Word of the living God, I made great mistakes." George Müller learned to trust that God, through His Word and prayer, would direct his steps.
