

ALASKA ADVENTURE INTENSIVE

SEPTEMBER 8-16
6 GUYS, HEALING THE MASCULINE SOUL, WILDERNESS

Have you ever dreamed of going to Alaska? It's a place that makes men's hearts come alive! It is a wilderness all men must go to. Join New Wilderness Adventures on this exciting adventure intensive into the wilderness surrounding Anchorage and Homer Alaska. NWA staff, Barry Strickland and Greg Sailors, will be your guides into the heart of the man and your walk into the healing of your masculine soul.

"...they might see with their eyes, hear with their ears, understand with their hearts and turn, and I would heal them." (Matt 13:15)

Base cost is $1600, not including travel there, "extra adventures," fishing license, and 8 meals out while traveling and sight seeing. There are a host of extra adventures like, guided fly fishing, bear watching, halibut fishing, kayaking, glacier flight & landing, Mt. McKinley flight tour, whale watching, and much more. We will be on Big Lake west of Anchorage for a few nights at a private cabin and at Hideaway Cove Resort near Homer for 4 nights. Both places afford you many adventures at no cost. Bring your own gear to fish, hike, and take day adventures in the Alaskan Wilderness.

This adventure is designed as an intensive for 6 men. It is not for the new christian but for the man, 18 and up, who wants to draw closer to the Father's heart and experience deep inner healing. We will take the first 6 guys who pay a deposit of at least $500 or the full amount. Full registration is due by August 1st. To register call Greg at 704-860-9719 or for full info go to facebook at: www.facebook.com/newwilderness
