New Wilmington Mission Conference Regulations *

1. Attendance is required at Bible Hour, Mission Study, Morning Meeting, Vespers and the Evening Meeting.
2. Junior High delegates are required to be in their living quarters by 10:00 p.m., High School delegates by 10:30 p.m., and Young Adults by 11:00 p.m.
3. Possession or use of drugs, alcohol, all forms of tobacco, fireworks or weapons is strictly forbidden.
4. Junior High, High School and Young Adult delegates are NOT permitted to ride in automobiles during the conference except with the permission of the Junior High, High School or Young Adult Coordinator and advance parental permission.
5. Dress Code: Appropriate dress is very important to the Conference because it is a significant way in which we honor the Lord. Scripture challenges us "to present our bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God" (Romans 12:1). Out of respect to our Lord and to the variety of age groups and cultural diversity represented at NWMC, we ask all delegates to dress in clean, modest attire throughout the Conference week. Anyone wearing clothing that is too provocative or revealing will be asked by the NWMC staff to change or to wear additional clothing.

* All delegates are under the supervision of the Conference management and anyone violating these regulations is subject to dismissal.

OTHER FEES:

Early Arrivals: $13/day plus cost of meals)

Airport Shuttle (per trip): $25 for one person; $40 for family (Contact the office for details)
