THE SEMINAR

In 2006, 16-year-old twins, Alex & Brett Harris teamed up to start “The Rebelution” by rallying Christian teens around the world to “rebel against the low expectations” of modern youth culture. Together they challenged their generation to “do hard things” for the glory of God and the good of others.

Since then over 25 million unique visitors have visited their website and read their blog. Over 300,000 have bought their book, Do Hard Things. Over 25,000 have attended their Do Hard Things conferences for teens and their parents in cities across the U.S. Of those, over 900 have stood boldly to profess their new found faith in Jesus Christ. It is amazing what God has done with just a couple of kids.

Ever wonder what their dad has to say about parenting?

In Raising Kids to Do Hard Things, Alex & Brett's father, Gregg Harris, presents the “Psalm 112 approach” he and his wife Sono have taken to make their home a place to “do hard things together” as a family. Far more than a child training seminar, Raising Kids to Do Hard Things is a “household-strategy seminar” for the whole family (ages 10+ & including grandparents). Mr. Harris will teach you how to make your home the launching pad of life for your kids.

THE SPEAKER

GREGG HARRIS is a Christian husband and father of seven. In addition to his training at the University of Dayton and Wright State University he has over over 36 years experience in ministry. He is well known as a conference speaker and author whose work helped launch the Christian home-school movement. He lives with his wife Sono and three youngest children in Gresham, OR, where he serves Gresham Household of Faith (www.ghofcc.org).
