

2013.12.08 Family For The King

Notebook: nac en's notebook

Created: 12/6/2013 11:30 AM

Updated: 12/6/2013 11:35 AM

---

Family Meeting: Family For The King

Ephesians 4:2-5

Be completely humble and gentle; be patient, bearing with one another in love. Make every effort to keep the unity of the Spirit through the bond of peace. There is one body and one Spirit, just as you were called to one hope when you were called; one Lord, one faith, one baptism;

What is something that stood out to me in the message today?

What is one question I have as a result of this message?

What is one commitment I need to make after hearing this message today?

Notes:

Connect Group Questions
Family Meeting: Family For The King

1. This week we looked at some common life activities that unify families. What would you say unified your family growing up? How has that impacted how you do family now as an adult?

2. In Acts 4:32-37, we see some of the common behavior of the early church. How does this compare and contrast to the church today?

3. Paul gives instructions as to how members of a church family are supposed to engage one another in Ephesians 4:2-3. Which of these areas do you think you can improve on in regards to how you interact with your church?

4. It has been said, "Results are not made in the comfort zone." What are some things God has been challenging you to do or change that are outside of your comfort zone?

5. How would your response to #4 contribute to making NAC the perfect place for imperfect people? How would this response contribute to Christ perfecting His work in you (Phil. 1:6)?