

Discipleship: The Love Language of God

Where Discipleship Begins

Acts 10

1. Discipleship can never be _____ (Act 10:1-3; 17:22-23)

A. Based on _____

B. Based on _____

C. Based on _____

2. Discipleship requires _____ (Acts 10:4-29)

A. That is _____ in its offer (4-35)

B. That is _____ in its content (36-43)

C. That is _____ in its reception (44-48)

Conclusions

1. A new birth experience is _____ discipleship.

2. A new birth experience is _____ discipleship.

Connect Group Questions
Discipleship:
Where Discipleship Begins

1. The word disciple means to be a student or follower of a teacher or mentor. Who in your life have you had a teacher/student or mentor/mentee type relationship with? What are some important life lessons you learned from that person?
2. Check out these passages, Acts 10:1-3, 17:22-23. What do Cornelius and the people of Athens have in common? What are their lives still lacking? (1. A)
3. Read Acts 10:4-7 & 28-33; how does Cornelius respond when he gets instruction from God? What can we learn from his response? (2. A)
4. Take some time reading through Peter's message in Acts 10:34-43, what are some things you notice about it? What is the response of the people in verses 44-48? (2. B-C)
5. This week we learned a new birth experience is required for discipleship. Read the teachings of Jesus in John 3:1-21. What does He teach us about "new birth" as it relates to discipleship? What can we learn about this "new birth" from v. 21?