What's your experience of brokenness?

Broken dreams...Broken relationships...Broken promises...Broken faith...

Brokenness is a reality of life, more than a momentary inconvenience that we quickly move beyond. This Lent season, join with others to discover how our compassionate God walks with in the midst of our brokenness. We'll discover that Christ's "suffering with" us can transform us into people whose weakness becomes the source of strength for other broken people on the journey.
