- Ten major reasons for low self-esteem.
- Ways to build esteem in yourself.

Testimonies from Seminar Participants

...he impressed upon me the invaluable teaching that God designed us so uniquely and loves us the way He created us to be. He has inspired and encouraged me to continue to view myself through God’s eyes...not the world’s. I would recommend his seminars to everyone, women and men alike. This nation is full of a lot of people with a lot of problems. - Deeda Snow

...I have also recently attended his “Self-Esteem Seminar.” It was informative, enlightening and just downright fun. The time went so quickly that I was surprised when it was over. I would truly recommend that any and all women and teenage girls attend this seminar. - Billie Hickman

The visual aids you showed, taken from current advertisements, and the music you played were very effective in showing how the media and the world’s perspective twist our opinion of what we are and what we should be. Your material was based solidly on God’s Word and I appreciated that the notes you gave us were very detailed and listed all your scripture references. Having such thorough notes, to which I could refer, made later review of the material very easy. As always, your presentation was timely and insightful, presented with humor, understanding and compassion. I would highly recommend your seminar to women of all ages. - Wendy E. Selley

... Charley captures your soul with wit and scripture. For every life lesson he throws at you, he rewards your soul with what the Lord shows the world through you as a woman. - Dawn

...I thoroughly enjoyed Charley Gerber’s seminar on self-esteem. Charley uses God’s Word as the one and only authority on how we should view ourselves and just how much God really loves us. Charley uses a lot of interesting facts and his humor makes the seminar a lot of fun. - Kay Richardson

... Charley has a way of drawing people in and meeting their needs through the changing power of God’s Word. He meets people where they are and helps transform them into God’s likeness. The outstanding teaching technique that Charley uses profoundly changes you from the inside out. Charley knows the word like the back of his hand and the application of that word will transform your life. - Sharon Riedman

...his interaction with the teen girls was great! They really loved it! In fact, he used one girl as an example and it turned out that was exactly what she was facing at school right then. It was neat that he was sensitive to the girl’s feelings as well as the leading of the Lord. - Marcie Bush

...I just want to thank you for sharing with us at our youth retreat last week! God has given you amazing gifts and thank you for sharing them. It was a blessing to have you be “real” and relate to youth and the adults where they are at. And to

Be Sure to attend this dynamic and powerful seminar May 15! Food and Childcare will be provided. We will
