Dear Custom Field 1 Thomas,

We hope that the information that we are sharing with you in this newsletter will be a blessing to you. Our mission here at Omega is simple... We strive to make the process of expanding your ministries as easy, enjoyable, and cost-effective for you as it possibly can be. Omega offers a complete menu of consulting, architectural design, and construction management services that seamlessly and safely move your project from vision to occupancy.

We understand the tremendous responsibilities borne by leaders like yourself. You want the best for your congregation and community. You want to work with people who share your vision, with people that you can trust, and with people who have a proven track record of success. At Omega, we bring over 20 years of church design and construction expertise to you to insure that your expansion plans will meet with success. The unique system offered by Omega results in less risk, less cost, and more control in your hands.

Please contact me to discuss your unique needs and to learn more about how Omega can help your ministries grow.

The Pastor and congregation of Abundant Life Apostolic Church in Cincinnati, Ohio, are now preparing to begin construction of their new facility in spring 2011.

The new worship facility designed by Omega includes a large two-story entry foyer with twin curved staircases, two stories of glass, and a water fountain. The foyer is flanked on the left by the administration suite and conference room, and on the right by a bookstore, nursery and toddlers' rooms, and a prayer room.

The main floor of of the sanctuary includes 1,007 congregational seats plus 157 choir and musician seats on the platform. The pastor's office behind the platform includes living quarters.

Riser seating provides access from the altar area to a balcony seating 656. The total seating capacity is 1,820. The upper floor also includes six large classrooms, and a 1,400 sq.ft. meeting room. The baptistry is elevated behind the platform. Omega has created a 3D computer model of the new facilities and a video presentation.
