

Thursday, September 21st

Jonah 3:10 - 4:11

When have you been like Jonah in this story? What are the underlying assumptions that Jonah made that led him to be so angry? Does Jonah have a right to be angry? When we are in Jonah's place, in our lives, do we get angry? Why? Why not?