

Don't Be Afraid

Matthew 28:1-10

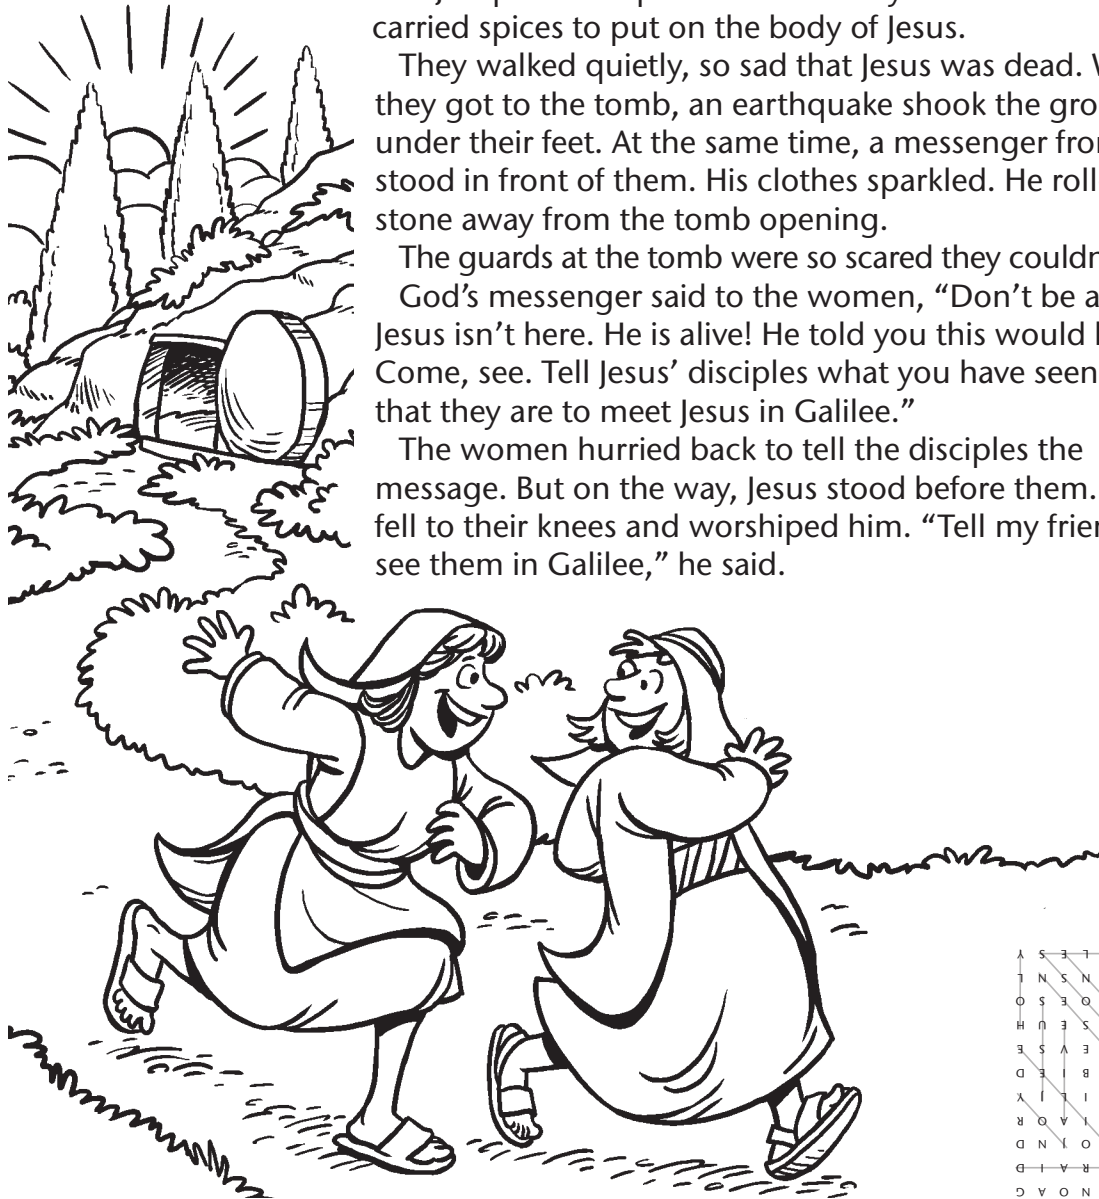

Jesus had died and was buried in a tomb. Now, before the sun rose, Mary of Magdala and Mary the mother of James and Joseph were up and on their way to the tomb. They carried spices to put on the body of Jesus.

They walked quietly, so sad that Jesus was dead. When they got to the tomb, an earthquake shook the ground under their feet. At the same time, a messenger from God stood in front of them. His clothes sparkled. He rolled the stone away from the tomb opening.

The guards at the tomb were so scared they couldn't move.

God's messenger said to the women, "Don't be afraid. Jesus isn't here. He is alive! He told you this would happen. Come, see. Tell Jesus' disciples what you have seen and that they are to meet Jesus in Galilee."

The women hurried back to tell the disciples the message. But on the way, Jesus stood before them. They fell to their knees and worshiped him. "Tell my friends I will see them in Galilee," he said.
