On Your Hearts

based on Jeremiah 31:31–34

Many years had passed since God gave the Ten Commandments. As time went by, God's people began to forget how to live in God's ways. They forgot about the Lord.

God called Jeremiah to be a prophet and to deliver a message to God's people:

> You forgot the commandments I gave you on the stone tablets when you left Egypt. We made a covenant that you would be my people and I would be your God. I will not give up on you. This time I will put my words in your heart so you cannot forget them. You will not have to teach them to one another, saying, "Know God." No, everyone, from the youngest to the oldest, will know me. And I will forgive all your sins. I will not remember the wrongs you have done. I will be your God, and you shall be my people.
