The Risen Christ Visits the Disciples based on Luke 24:36b-48

On the day that God raised Jesus from death, the followers of Jesus gathered together. They didn't know what to do or where to go. Suddenly, Jesus was standing in the room with them. The disciples were terrified. "It must be a ghost!" someone whispered.

Jesus said. "Peace be with you. Touch my hands and my feet. It's really me! A ghost doesn't have skin and bones, but I do."

"Will you give me something to eat?" Jesus asked. They gave Jesus a piece of fish, and he ate it. A ghost doesn't eat food, they thought.

Jesus spoke to them:

Go and tell everyone to turn back to God. Tell them that God forgives sins in my name. Preach this in Jerusalem and then to all nations. You have seen what I can do and heard what I taught. You are witnesses! God is sending the Spirit to help you do this.

Signs for Peace
