

Peter and Cornelius based on Acts 10:44-48

Cornelius was an army officer who worshiped God. An angel came to him and said, "God has heard your prayers, Cornelius. Now go find Peter."

Meanwhile, the apostle Peter was praying on a rooftop in another town.

Suddenly, Peter had a vision! A giant sheet came down from the sky, filled with things that Jews were not allowed to eat according to the Law of Moses. The Lord's voice said, "Peter, get up and eat!" Peter said, "No! These things are unclean! I will not eat them!" The Lord said, "God created these things. Do not say they are unclean!" This happened three times, and then the sheet disappeared.

Cornelius sent his servants to find Peter, and Peter returned with them to teach Cornelius and everyone in his household about Jesus. God sent the gift of the Holy Spirit to all these people and Peter baptized them. Peter knew they were one in Christ!
