Luke 1:26-38

Who Me?

Moses was a murderer who had fled the country before he got caught. He had been a prince in Egypt, now he was a shepherd watching over a herd of stupid, stinky sheep. Then he saw a burning bush.

David was a shepherd boy, the youngest of seven sons. Then one day the prophet Samuel came to town.

Abram was a rich rancher getting on in years living on the outskirts of one of the largest cities in the 2000 BC world. One day God asked him to pack up everything and move. Once he was on the road, God said He would show Abram where to move.

Peter and his brother Andrew were fishermen on Lake Galilee who hadn't caught anything after a night of fishing. Then Jesus came walking along the beach.

Mary was probably only about 15 or 16 years old when an angel named Gabriel told her she was going to have a baby.

And you're you, looking at a Table Talk in 2017 reading some Bible verses. Do you think that, maybe, God's got plans for you, too?
