Genesis 1:1-5

God Still Calls Light out of Darkness

Winter is an amazing time to stargaze. Orion is always breathtaking. Almost straight up you can see the fuzzy glow of the Andromeda galaxy. It's the farthest away thing you can see without a telescope.

And God created them all.

This is an important thing for parents and kids to talk about. The world around us tells a very different creation story. Popular science presenters like Bill Nye or Neil deGrasse Tyson tell us that science has pretty much disproved

God. They tell us life evolved. Even the stars evolved. And now-a-days they even say the universe evolved. This would mean that the universe, and you, are the accidental products of blind forces and blind chance.

But God created it all, and He created us. He has a plan and a purpose for it all. And He created us to be little creators like Him. We make art, we build, we invent. What's more, just like what He created tells us about Him, the things we create should point to Him, too.

Sunday Read Psalm 29 This song is comparing God to something you have probably seen before. What is it? (Hint: look at verse 3 and 7) Do you think it is a good comparison?	Monday Read Genesis 1:1-5 Go outside and look up at the stars tonight. Do you know how to find the constellation Orion? There are some apps or websites to help you. How awesome is God?	Tuesday Read Genesis 1:1-5 Make up a world. Draw a map, or write a description, or just draw a make believe animal from it. Show it to your Sunday School teacher next Sunday.
Wednesday Read Mark 1:4-8 Have you been baptized? What does it mean to be baptized with the Holy Spirit? Look back at Genesis 1. Was the Holy Spirit there? (Look at John 1:1-4, were was Jesus?)	Thursday Read Acts 19:1-7 What is the difference between John's baptism and Jesus'? (Yup, this is the same question as yesterday.) What difference would it make in how you live?	Friday Read Mark 4:9-11 There is the Spirit of God descending on Jesus, the voice of God coming from heaven, and the Son of God standing in the river. What does the word Trinity mean?

Memory Verse: Genesis 1:1

In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth.
