To Make Him Known: Wherever and Whenever

When the church first began, almost everyone stayed near Jerusalem. But then Saul got permission to start arresting Christians. Most of the Christians began leaving Jerusalem. One of the leaders in the early Church, a guy named Phillip went to Samaria, the region north of Jerusalem, and began telling people there about Jesus.

One day the Holy Spirit said, "Go south to the desert road between Jerusalem and the coastal city of Gaza."

Nobody lived down there (it's a desert) but Phillip went anyway. God knew what He was up to. Phillip had an appointment God didn't want him to miss.
