Mark 4:35-41

Be Quiet, Storm

The Sea of Galilee is not actually a sea. It's a lake, and not a very large lake (it's bigger than lake Coeur d'Alene but a lot smaller than lake Pend Orielle). Peter, his brother Andrew, and their friends, James and John, were fishermen on Galilee, so they knew how to handle a boat. They might have even been in Peter's boat.

Jesus was tired from teaching crowds of people so he took a nap while the disciples rowed and sailed the boat across the lake.

But even in a lake, a big wind can make big waves, and Jesus and His disciples were in a pretty small boat. The disciples began to panic, and remember, some of them were good sailors.

They woke up Jesus, completely freaking out. Jesus just tells the wind and waves, "Be quiet!" The wind quieted down. The waves calmed.

Now the disciples were really freaked out. Who can tell the weather what to do? Who can make the wind just stop? Who or what is Jesus?

Sunday Read Mark 4:35-41 Why were the disciples afraid of the storm? Why do they become very afraid of Jesus? Look at the memory verse. Can you answer the disciples' question?	Monday Read Job 38:1-11 Job thinks God has treated him unfairly. But God comes and asks Job some questions. How would you answer God's questions.	Tuesday Read Job 38:1-11 Who made the ocean? If God put you in charge of building the ocean, how would you have done it?
Wednesday Read Psalms 107:23-32 Who makes storms and calms them?	Thursday Read Mark 4:35-41 Can you still remember the memory verse? Can you do a better job of answering the disciples' question now?	Friday Read 2 Corinthians 6:1-13 Paul says that God's power is working in us. Think about the Bible verse you've talked about this week. What can God's power do?

Memory Verse: Mark 4:41

The disciples were absolutely terrified. "Who is this man?" they asked each other. "Even the wind and waves obey him!"
