A Heart Focused on God presented by Rebekah Johnson

Our hearts can often feel like there’s a piece missing, much like that last piece of a puzzle. In the quest to make our hearts feel whole, we often focus on the roles we take on to provide that feeling of completeness. We focus our hearts on being a wife, mother, professional, or volunteer longing to find a purpose that gives us meaning. In this class, we will discuss the importance of setting the focus of our hearts back on God. When we do this, we will discover that we are complete when we acknowledge our true identity as His daughters.

Rebekah Johnson was born and raised in Florida and moved to Ohio to attend college and received a degree in Biblical studies from Cincinnati Bible College. Rebekah is the mother of two young boys and is actively involved in the Youth Ministry at Parkview Christian Church with her husband. She has organized retreats and special events for young women pointing them to a deeper relationship with God and each other. Her favorite Scripture is Jeremiah 29:11-14a.

Bloom Where You Are Planted presented by Angie Kettle

Struggling to find our place when the world seems to be shifting beneath our feet on a regular basis. The importance of having a perennial mindset and an annual bloom cycle. God made us for eternity, to be perennial. Our time here (in this city, state, country or even life) is limited, like an annual. We may not have tomorrow to do what God calls us to do. Finding our way, putting down roots and blooming (serving God) CAN quickly be accomplished with prayer and the power of the Holy Spirit.

Angie grew up in SE Ohio along the banks of the Ohio River. She has been married to her high school sweetheart, Keith, for 33 years. Angie is active at Parkview Christian Church leading and participating in Bible Studies and co-leading a Marriage Ministry with her husband. Angie loves reading, writing, gardening, photography, and spending time with family. Learning to live each day as God would have her live it, BLOOMING for Him!

Power of Words presented by Pam Lang

Words surround us, we hear, see, read and speak all kinds of words on a daily basis. We live by the words we believe. We allow words to define us and they have the power to hurt or to heal. No matter what stage of life you are in sometimes we just have to be reminded (and remind ourselves) of who we are and to Whom we belong. In this short study we will be taking a look at some specific statements found in the book of Ephesians. You may already know them, but do you live like you believe them about yourself?

Pam and her husband Gregg have been married for 29 years and she is the mom of adult twins. Pam is a Bible Study leader, Small Group Host and Coordinator for Mommy & Me-playgroup with a purpose at Parkview Christian Church. Pam enjoys reading, spending time with family and friends and seeing and enjoying what God has in store each day.

My Puzzle presented by Karen Norheim

Did you ever wonder where you fit into the life of the church—or even if you matter at all? Have you struggled with feelings of inadequacy for a job someone asked you to do in the church? Just exactly where do you fit in to the church? This will be a workshop where you can know what your spiritual gifts are, and how you fit into the life and ministry of the church. We’ll explore Romans 12 to see what God’s word has to say about how we “fit in.” I promise you—it won’t be puzzling at all to you. You’ll be glad you joined us to find the place for which God has exclusively designed you. Grab your one-of-a-kind puzzle piece and join us.

Karen was reared in a Christian home in Illinois and attended eight grades in a one-room schoolhouse, and graduated from Havana Community High School and Lincoln Christian University in Lincoln. Karen enjoys team-teaching and leading marriage enrichment seminars and retreats with her husband. She has spoken for women’s retreats and seminars throughout the U.S. Her book for/about ministers’ wives, entitled Mrs. Preacher, was published by College Press of Joplin, MO. She has authored a children’s workbook entitled What Does the Bible Say About Baptism? She illustrated a cancer book for children, entitled, Clarabelle the Cat. Karen and her husband Neil are in their 9th year of service with the Parkview Christian Church in Findlay, OH, where he serves as Senior Minister.
One Day Women’s Conference Featuring

Kelly Swanson

Puzzle Pieces...Where Do I Fit In?

Parkview Christian Church Women’s Ministry is excited to welcome Comedian, Motivational Speaker, and Award Winning Author, Kelly Swanson as our main speaker. Her hilarious and powerfully motivating shows have charmed audiences and tickled funny bones from coast to coast, from board rooms to cruise ships. When she’s not out making the world laugh, she’s a frazzled wife and mom, still trying to convince her family that chocolate is a food group. She is excited at any opportunity to share the hope that is within her. Kelly is the author of “Who Hijacked My Fairy Tale” and is currently working on her next book, “Dear God, Does This Microphone Make My Butt Look Big? Real Questions from a Real Woman for a Real God Who Can Handle Them.” For more about Kelly, go to www.kellyswanson.net.
