Thrive

Building Wisely Aubrey Johnson

The day you got married, your top responsibility became helping your mate get to heaven. The day you had children, your first priority became helping your son or daughter get to heaven. Every other concern is secondary to these goals. So, how will you succeed? Purposeful parenting requires a plan, so let me ask you, “What are the beliefs, values, and life-skills you want your children to develop?” This is the topic of today’s sermon.

In basic training, soldiers develop confidence and competence. Parents should be no less serious about training their children for victory. Christian homes are not boot camps but they are training grounds for abundant life. Fortunately, you don’t need a drill sergeant’s demeanor to get the job done. A warm heart and worn Bible are all the tools you will need. ☐

Shepherd’s Corner Perry Baker

The word “hypocrite” as used in Scripture, means “one who plays the role of another; one who appears to be something he or she is not.” In fact the word comes from a Greek term that refers to actors playing the role of another on stage, usually while wearing a mask, just like a façade.

Jesus use of the word, especially in Matthew 23:13,23,25,2-29 and verse 28 makes it clear that He regarded a hypocrite as one who was all appearance and no substance. “So you also outwardly appear righteous to others, but within you are full of hypocrisy and lawlessness”.

The Queen Mary was the largest ship to cross the oceans when it was launched in 1936. Through four decades and a World War she served until she was retired, anchored in Long Beach, California. During her conversion into a floating hotel, her three massive smokestacks were removed, to be scraped down and repainted, but on the dock they crumbled. Nothing was left of the ¾” steel plate from which the stacks had been made from. All that remained were more than thirty coats of paint had been applied over the years. The steel inside had completely rusted away.

When Jesus called the Pharisees “whitewashed tombs,” He meant they had no substance, only a pleasing exterior appearance. Peter encourages each one to put away that which hinders our Christian growth. 1Peter 2:1-2, “So put away all malice and all deceit and hypocrisy and all slander. Like new born infants, long for the pure spiritual milk, that by it you may grow up into salvation”.

Let us strive to be real. Let us make sure that we are on the inside what we appear to be on the outside. Let’s not be all paint and no smokestack! ☐

Thankful Praying John Hayes

We give thanks to You, O God, we give thanks! For Your works declare that Your name is near. ~ Psalms 75:1

When I was a kid, I would ask God to help me pass a test at school. Or a class. Many times I would pray for my report card to change (yeah, that never happened). I believe it's normal to pray to God when we are worried, scared, sad or in need of His comfort or help, but I am also a proponent of thanking God in prayer as much as possible. Prayers are dialogues with God. When we pray, we are telling Him what is on our hearts and minds. If all we do is ask for more and more, what does that say to our Heavenly Father? We also need to thank Him for our blessings—constantly.

It’s important to me that God knows I am grateful for Kim, our children, our home, our health, my parents, our material blessings, our church and so much more. My nightly prayers are filled with thankfulness because I know I have been blessed more than I deserve. Are you thankful? Are you grateful for your salvation, your friendships, your job? Thankfulness is a key to a happy life. It turns things around by changing your outlook and your attitude. Feel the power of a thankful heart! ☐ Rejoice always, pray without ceasing, in everything give thanks; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you. ~ 1 Thessalonians 5:16-18
