

Sermon Notes

The Weaver

My life is but a weaving
between my Lord and me,
I cannot chose the colors He worketh steadily.
Oft times He weaveth sorrow and I in foolish pride Forget He sees the upper and I, the underside.
Not till the loom is silent and the shuttles cease to fly Shall God unroll the canvas and explain the reason why.
The dark threads are as needful in the Weaver's skillful hand
As the threads of gold and silver in the pattern He has planned.

Room In the Inn Needs

We will be collecting “your favorite go-to” recipes for a fundraiser for Room in the Inn. The goal is to collect 750-1,000 recipes in the next three weeks. The goal has been set to sell 1,000 cookbooks that will be available in mid June. The cost will be less than $20. Please place your recipes in the boxes provided at the side door and in the front foyer and be sure to include your name. There will be a sign –up sheet on the Lord’s Supper table if you would like to purchase a cookbook. You will pay when the cookbooks come in. See Beth Harrison if you have questions. TURN IN ASAP!!!

“His Word” for Your Life

The His Word devotional book gives us a great opportunity to listen to some of my favorite preachers of all time! This week’s readings in John 8-12 not only get to the heart of John’s purpose for writing, but we get to read along with Cecil May, Jr. as he thinks about what these great chapters mean. This is a great week to get caught up, or jump back in, if you’ve gotten behind. Join me, brother Cecil, and the rest of your church family in the reading this week.

1. John 8 points out the confusion the Jews have concerning freedom (see verses 33-34). As Americans, how can we be in danger of the same thing?
2. Despite the combined knowledge of the entire Jewish council, they could not penetrate one stubborn man’s simple statement: “I was blind, now I see...” What one statement can YOU hold on to that NO ONE can take away concerning your faith in Christ?
3. What lessons from John 10 does Cecil May bring out this week? What will you do about those ideas?
4. Each devotional ends with “Today I will...” and the challenge that comes with John 11 is one of the most emotionally powerful, and necessary, calls to action for anyone trying to be like Christ. Can you tackle it this week?
5. John 12 sums up the entire final week of Jesus’ life, where the other Gospels give us a few more details. John wants to take us straight to that Upper Room and the final thoughts of the Master. There are 4 amazing encounters in this chapter– which is the most powerful in your mind? Why?

Study these precious words this week, and you will be blessed
With Love, Adam
