Presbyterians Honor Don Phillip Gibson

On the evening of Dec. 23, 2013, members of the First Presbyterian Church, Winfield, honored Don as he celebrated his birthday and 49 years as Church Organist. He began his career in October 1958 while still a student at Southwestern College. In July 1965, after receiving his Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine, he returned to Winfield to become church organist. Don has continued to thrill the congregation with his music ministry ever since. The theme of the evening was "Gold Rush 49er" with those attending dressed in blue jeans, flannel shirts, miner glasses, hats, and carrying pick axes. A covered dish dinner and birthday cake was enjoyed by all. Winfield Mayor Greg Thompson read a proclamation declaring December 23rd as Don Phillip Gibson Day. The evening concluded with a short organ recital dedicated to Don by life-long friend, Jim Leland.

First Presbyterian
Arkansas City is
"THE HOST"

In late December 2013 and early January 2014, the First Presbyterian Church, Arkansas City was "THE HOST." The members provided various retirement celebrations for Rev. Danny Daniel and an Ordination Service for Rev. Bob Barrett.

January 5, 2014, was the Ordination Service for Rev. Robert Barrett. Pastors Angela Madden, Amy Long, Danny Daniel and Robert Wyman and others are shown participating in the service.

During the last worship service with Danny and Joyce Daniel, each church member was asked to bring a strip of fabric that was special to them to be woven together to create a wall hanging for Danny and Joyce. This picture shows Ruthie Shurtz, Madi Mc Dowell and Dorothy Faidley working on the woven wall hanging

Rev. Danny & Rev. Joyce Daniel during "Children's Time" at First Presbyterian Church, Arkansas City.
