Thoughts From Our General Presbyter

As the rest of the world goes back to life as usual, we continue to celebrate the ongoing gift of Jesus Christ. May our songs, our proclamation, our time with you and with each other be a thank-you note for all you have done and are doing in our lives. I found the following verse of a hymn I had not seen before in the Psalter Hymnal. It was written by Margaret Clarkson in 1973.

“Lord of the universe, hope of the world, Lord of the limitless reaches of space;

Here on this planet you put your flesh, vastness confined in the womb of a maid;

*Born in our likeness you ransomed our race:
Savior, we worship you, praise and adore;*

Help us to honor you more and yet more, help us to honor you more and yet more!

Wishing you a year filled with hope and promise!
