Fellowship - Hayrack Ride and Cook Out

First Presbyterian, Larned, enjoyed a hayrack ride and cook out on Sunday, September 27th.

Thanks to Debby and Jamie Kirby for hosting this event sponsored by the Deacons.

Thirty plus members children, and guests attended this popular event.

Upon arrival at the Kirby home, participants could ride horses, and join the hayrack ride.

Everyone enjoyed a great meal of hot dogs, baked beans, chips, S'mores and side dishes provided by church members. It was a good time for all!

(Thank you Linda Wyman for this information)

The 2015 Fall Gatherings of the Presbyterian Women of Southern Kansas were held on September 29th at Covenant Presbyterian Church, Wichita, and on October 6th at First Presbyterian Church, Winfield. The theme of the gatherings was "Come to the Waters."

At Covenant, the Rev. Catherine Neelly Burton led morning worship. Morning speakers at Covenant & Winfield were Meme Overholt and the Rev.

Jennifer Snook, (l-r pictured) members of the Board of Directors, Legacy Ministries of Wichita. Legacy Ministries provides creative opportunities for youths from detention facilities, rehab placements & other at-risk situations. The morning worship offering of $405 was designated for Legacy House toward a new kitchen floor. Those in attendance also brought children's books for distribution by Legacy during their times of Christmas caroling in their neighborhood.

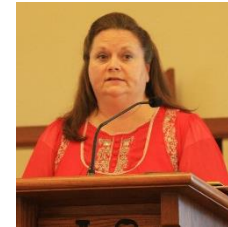

At Winfield, the Rev. Deb Schmidt led morning worship. Morning speakers also included Merry Crain and Dusti Fansler of Cowley County Safe Homes. They serve those escaping from domestic violence in a three county area. Those attending the gathering brought toiletries, feminine products and diapers for Safe Homes. Worship offering was $307.51.

Workshops on the Horizons Bible Study, "Come to the Waters," and "Making Crosses" rounded out the gathering programs. Faith and Life Bookstore from Newton was available at both gatherings. There were 31 in attendance at Covenant and 33 in Winfield.

The annual Spring Gathering and business meeting is planned for April 16 or 23, 2016, at First Presbyterian Church in Marion, Kansas.
