Religious Education - A Fresh Approach to Formation

“New Year, New Beginning”

Jesus himself did not flee from the world. Rather, he plunged headlong into the ordinariness of life in order to reveal the extraordinary presence of God there. Jesus did not tell his followers to run and hide or to separate from society. Rather, he said, “Go!” - challenging them to plunge headlong into the world.

That same commission is meant for us. We may not fully understand our children’s world. We may not approve of everything that is happening in “their world.” However, we must not think that somehow God is more present in “our world.” Our task is to enter into their world and to help them uncover and recognize the God who is already there in the ordinariness of daily life.

Another person who is known for his openness to the world is Pope Francis, who, in speaking to the world’s priests at the Chrism Mass on Holy Thursday 2013, challenged them to “be shepherds with the smell of sheep.” One priest I know, when told of the Holy Father’s words remarked, “Well, some of the sheep smell pretty bad.” That’s precisely the point. Ministry - and in particular, catechesis - does not take place in a sterile environment. Our children are inundated with technology and outside influences. We need to be present and aware of their environment.

As parents we need to be close to our sheep, not distant. This doesn’t mean that we are to become absorbed into their world or that we need to identify with them. It simply means that we are to be in touch with their reality so we can speak to it, affirming that which is good and holy and transforming that which is contrary to God’s will. (Creative Catechist)

We hope you enjoyed your Christmas break and spending time with your families. Sunday School classes resume this weekend. Please keep the children, their families and teachers in your prayers as they continue the Faith Formation of our parish children.

Casting Lots for the Seamless Garment (John 19:23-24)

Six Principles of Nonviolence - Part 1 of 2

Taken from Kingian Principles of Nonviolence, The King Center

Principle One: Nonviolence is a way of life for courageous people. It is active nonviolent resistance to evil. It is aggressive spiritually, mentally and emotionally. It is always persuading the opponent of the righteousness of your cause. It is only passive in its non-aggression toward its enemy.

Principle Two: Nonviolence seeks to win friendship and understanding. The end of nonviolence is redemption and reconciliation. The purpose of nonviolence is the creation of The Beloved Community.

Principle Three: Nonviolence seeks to defeat injustice not people. Nonviolence recognizes that evil doers are also victims and are not evil people. The nonviolent resister seeks to defeat evil not people.

Principle Four: Nonviolence holds that suffering can educate and transform. Nonviolence accepts suffering without retaliation. Nonviolence accepts violence if necessary, but will never inflict it. Nonviolence willingly accepts the consequences of its act. Unearned suffering is redemptive and has tremendous education and transforming possibilities. Suffering has the power to convert the enemy when reason fails.

Nursery

The church nursery is available for children ages 6 months through 2 years of age during the 8:30 and 11:00 am Masses. Nursery resumes January 4. If you have never visited our nursery, you are welcome to come down for a tour!

Stewardship: Parishioners Answering God's Call

On Sunday, January 11, a group from Prince of Peace will serve lunch to the needy at the Church of the Reconciler. Volunteers are needed to provide food and desserts and help serve the meal on that Sunday. If you would like to help with this ministry, please call Cathy Bertanzetti at 205.979.6416 or Suzie Greer at 205.823.0767.

Thank You from the Pastor

Another beautiful Advent Season, Guadalupe Festival and Christmas holiday has passed. I want to take this opportunity to thank all those members of our Prince of Peace parish family who helped make our celebrations wonderful and meaningful.

I cannot name you all individually - the Parish Staff, lectors, ushers, choir members, angels, shepherds, altar servers, decorators, cooks, maintenance staff, greeters, traffic controllers - each person with a job, however large or small - together makes Prince of Peace Church a warm and welcoming stewardship community.

On behalf of Fr. Ackerman, Fr. Peter, and myself, we appreciate your generosity to each of us and to our parish.

In years past, I had a friend who helped the Nativity scene in the church. Year after year, when we finished, he would sit back, admire his work, and exclaim, "This is the best one yet!" He never tired of the job or the same old figurines, but always found a new joy in putting the trees, lights, and manger together.

This is my wish for each of you - find a new joy in all you do this New Year! I encourage you to read the prayer below and embrace all that it says.

God Bless You,

Fr. John Fallon

Prayer for the First Day of the Year

Eternal and Almighty God, who makes all things new, we thank you that today you have allowed us to begin a new year. Here in your presence we make our resolutions for the days to come.

We resolve to be faithful and true to those who love us, and loyal to those who are our friends, so that we may never bring worry to their minds or distress to their hearts.

We resolve to live in forgiveness and in kindness, that, like Jesus, we may go about always doing good.

We resolve to live in diligence and effort, that we may use the full gifts and the talents that God has given us.

We resolve to live in goodness and purity, that we ourselves may resist temptation, and that we may be a strength to others who are tempted.

We resolve to live in sympathy and in gentleness, that we may bring comfort to the sorrowing and understanding to those who are confused.

We resolve to live in serenity and in self-control, that no anger or passion may disturb our own peace nor the peace of others.

We resolve to show our love for God by keeping his Commandments and ask Jesus to bless us with his peace and joy for doing this.

O God, our Loving Father, you have given us the grace to make our own resolutions, grant us also the strength to keep them through the coming year.
