Financial Stewardship

The disciples on the road to Emmaus walked and talked with Jesus all day long, but it was not until they offered Him hospitality and He blessed and broke the bread that they recognized Him. Simple acts of loving kindness still reveal the presence of God in our midst.

Last year, Prince of Peace became the only chartered Holy Name Society church in the Birmingham Diocese. Join us Sunday, May 18, after the 8:30 am Mass in the St. Nicholas Room. Special Thanks to our Electronic Givers

Prince of Peace would like to thank the many families who are now giving electronically. Stewardship: Parishioners Answering God's Call

An older couple, parishioners at Prince of Peace, received a nice surprise not long ago. They were leaving a store with a cart full of bedding plants for their flower garden when they ran into a fellow parishioner. After a few minutes the parishioner, a master gardener, volunteered to plant the flowers for the couple. The couple was not expecting such a generous offer, but gladly accepted!

Please submit your stewardship story examples to cathy.yarbrough@popcatholic.org. They may be edited for space consideration.

Casting Lots for the Seamless Garment (John 19:23-24)

Will for Life - Doing Double

Euthanasia and the death penalty can be connected by taking it personally. Legal documents can assert we don't want to be killed through medicine or medical neglect, nor have anyone be executed in the event we are killed by criminal homicide.

The National Right to Life Committee has put in the great amount of homework needed to have "Will to Live" documents for the United States that take into account the differing state-by-state laws. They have information on why to take this approach, and downloadable documents. People from other countries should also find this useful in crafting their own documents, taking care for what revisions might be needed for the laws of their own country.

The Catholic Mobilizing Network to End the Use of Death Penalty has a standardized "Declaration for Life" which asserts opposition to the death penalty and says "I hereby declare that should I die as a result of a violent crime, I request that the person or persons found guilty of homicide for my killing not be subject to or put in jeopardy of the death penalty under any circumstances, no matter how heinous their crime or how much I may have suffered." The group is collecting the names of those who've signed the document so that numbers can have impact.

The "Will to Live" has actual legal status, whereas the "Declaration for Life" is only something that may influence court proceedings if the officials choose to pay attention to it - but this does happen. We would naturally encourage our participants to download and sign both documents, get them notarized at the same time, and keep them together as a connected wills for life. This might also make a good set of documents to make available at houses of worship and other gatherings of groups who like to take action, with a notary on hand.

For more information on the Seamless Garment Ministry, please contact Tom & Elsbeth Germanson at 205.565.3456.
