Permanent Deacon Information Sessions

In the August 29 edition of the One Voice, Bishop Baker announced information sessions for those interested in finding out more about serving as a permanent deacon in the Diocese of Birmingham. These sessions will occur throughout the Diocese. The closest one to Prince of Peace is on September 14 at St. Peter the Apostle Church in Hoover at 3:00 pm.

The Deacon Formation program is a multi-year process run by a formation team led by Deacon Sam Anzalone (anz2@att.net). This program helps its participants discern whether they are called to serve as a Deacon, an ancient ministry in the Church which focuses on care for the Chalice during Mass, proclamation of the Gospel, and care for the poor and vulnerable.

Glory Bound Youth Choir

The Glory Bound Youth Choir will begin rehearsals Wednesday, September 17, from 6:00 - 6:30 pm in the church. This choir is open to all youth in grades 1-12. We will sing at one mass per month - October thru May.

All youth who are singers, cantors, or instrumentalists are welcome. For more information, please contact Cheri Poole, Music Director, at 205.541.7834 or email noteworthiness@yahoo.com.

A New Phase...

The Finance Council approved the Prince of Peace Parish Expansion Plan to construct a two-story building on the school campus. The new facility will provide additional classroom space for our school and parish religious education students as well as space for youth activities. CTSM Architects, Inc. has been selected as the project architect, Duncan & Thompson Construction as the general contractor, and Rast Construction will handle the clearing of the property and site prep work. Further details and architectural drawings will be available soon!

How Good Do We Have to Be?

How Good Do We Have to Be? By Rabbi Harold Kushner is very strong on the point of healthy religious faith involving genuine community and mutual responsibility for ongoing growth and conversion in individuals and in society.

"If anyone tells you that one mistake puts you at risk of losing God's and our friendship and you believe it, then you will inevitably define yourself as a sinner.... If religion tells you that even angry and lustful thoughts are sinful then you will come to think of yourselves as sinner.... By that definition and that approach everyone of us does something wrong probably every day and we'll never make it. If nothing short of purity and perfection permits us to stand before the throne of God, then none of us ever will.

When religion teaches us that God loves the wounded soul, the chastised soul, that out of experience has taught us something about its own fallibility and its own limitations. But, when religion teaches us to stand together in those experiences, when religion teaches us that being human is a complicated challenge and that all of us will make mistakes in the process of learning how to do it right and that we need to stand together in that process, then we become participants in a wonderful adventure. Our mistakes are no longer emblems of our unworthiness, but invitations to grow. We will be brave enough to live and to share life."

STEWARDSHIP: Answering God's Call

Stewardship: Parishioners Answering God's Call

A parishioner, a working Mom, recently offered to help with the preparation for Fall Sunday School. She couldn't commit to teaching a class, but knew that she had some availability to help in other areas. Materials were provided to her that she could tear apart, sort and file while watching TV at night. It was a great help to the staff and allowed the parishioner to use her 'gifts.'

Please submit your stewardship story examples to cathy.yarbrough@popcatholic.org.
They may be edited for space consideration.

Shared Blessings

Shared Blessings is a ministry that serves people in need through household donations. Prince of Peace parishioners have served over 50 families in our parish and community through this ministry in the last year. If you are cleaning out or updating, please consider donating your used goods to Prince of Peace. We are currently in need of a sofa, tv stand, 2 twin beds, dryer, small kitchen table with chairs, baby girl summer clothing size 9-12 months and winter clothing size 12-18 months. We are always looking for willing volunteers to help transport large items. Please assure that items are clean and ready to be placed in someone's home. If you have items to donate, please contact Jacqueline McLeod at 248-444-7411. If you are interested in helping with this ministry, please call Kathy Claypoole at 205.451.3332.

Casting Lots for the Seamless Garment (John 19:23-24)

Written by a Man in Uganda

"A few years ago, I got a call on my cell phone from a twelve year old child from my village. He was calling me from a bus stop. He'd taken a bus into the city alone and he was calling me to ask if I could help him find a way to go to school. Both of his parents had died of AIDS, and he had no money for tuition. I told him to stay where he was and left work immediately to pick him up. At first I was very mad at him. He should not have traveled alone. But then I looked at him and I saw myself. I'd also been desperate to go to school after my father was killed, but we had no money. So even though I was suffering myself, I told him I would try to help him. My salary was not enough, so I tried many things to get money. After work, I went to the landfill to hunt for recyclables. But after I paid to have them cleaned, there was no money left. Now I'm trying to make bricks. I have a small operation in the village to make bricks and I sell them in the city. It doesn't make much money, but it's enough to pay tuition for the boy and three of his siblings."

No one in Africa wants your money. They want the dignity of earning a living and to help the less fortunate in their community. 9 out of every 10 Ugandans have tried a business in an effort to improve their own lives and break the cycle of poverty. They're not in poverty because they won't work but because they live under a totalitarian rule that oppresses them, even to death. Amid the rampant disease, poverty, civil unrest, and illiteracy, there are hundreds of thousands of souls yearning to live meaningful lives. You can learn more about these incredible people at www.humansofnewyork.com. (Courtesy of Dennis Krantz's weekly bible commentary - denkrantz@gmail.com)

For more information on the Seamless Garment Ministry, please contact Tom & Elsbeth Germanson at 205.565.3456.

On Sunday, September 14, a group from Prince of Peace will serve lunch to the needy at the Church of the Reconciler.

Volunteers are needed to provide food and desserts and help serve the meal on that Sunday. If you would like to help with this ministry, please call Cathy Bertanzetti at 205.907.8345.
