Stewardship: Parishioner's Answering God's Call in Hospitality

Not long ago a parishioner was shopping in a local Wal-Mart store and accidentally left her cane somewhere in the store. Efforts to locate it were unsuccessful. A few days later someone from the store called to tell her that her cane had been 'shelved' with the new canes for sale. He noticed that this was a used cane and had someone's name on it! Our parishioner was on the receiving end of someone's Christian kindness.

Please submit your stewardship story examples to cathy.yarbrough@popcatholic.org.

All are Welcome...

Amoris Laetitia (The Joy of Love)

On April 8, Pope Francis released a new Apostolic Exhortation on love in the family. The complete text of the document can be found at Vatican.va, the Vatican website. The following commentary on this important document is written by Andrew Hamilton, consulting editor of the Jesuit publication, Eureka Street.

Pope Francis sketches an attractive view of marriage as a gift that Christian faith has to offer. The document's title, The Joy of Love, is embodied in its tone.

As a commentator, the Pope returns again and again to the need to focus on faces when thinking of family and responding to people, and not to hammer them with abstract ideals or rules.

His most succinct and focused argument comes when he recognizes the importance of doctrine and law in Catholic conversations about marriage, and simultaneously insists on respecting the priority of people's conscience in deciding how they should act. And they should always be met with compassion.

Catholics need 'to avoid judgements which do not take into account the complexity of various situations' and 'to be attentive, by necessity, to how people experience distress because of their condition'.

I was struck by Francis' frequent evocation of tenderness as a central quality of marriage and family life. It underlined the centrality of love in his description of marriage and his insistence on the beauty and attractiveness of the Christian ideal of marriage. He gives this priority over the laws and expectations with which it is often identified.

The appeal to tenderness also illuminates the pastoral approach he expects Catholics to take to people in different situations. It points to the threads that join personal relationships in families with relationships within churches and relationships to the environment.

Tenderness is opposed to judging, talking down to one another, using rules or principles as a bludgeon with which to beat people, and neglecting the pain of people who are marginal or excluded.

Casting Lots for the Seamless Garment (John 19:23-24)

Jesus Lives!

...How does the truth of the risen Lord impinge upon your life and mine? If we truly believe that Jesus lives and breathes and moves among us, how might that impact the way we live, breathe and move about in this world? Might we be kinder? Less judgmental? Less prejudiced, less fearful? Might we more readily embrace and tend to the needs of the poor with whom Jesus chose to identify? Might we be humbler? More transparent? Freer? Jesus lives! And so do we -- in him, for him, through him! (Patricia Sánchez, National Catholic Reporter, Mar 25 - Apr 7) [Patricia Sánchez holds a master's degree in literature and religion of the Bible from a joint degree program at Columbia University and Union Theological Seminary in New York.]

Respondiendo al Llamado de Dios

No hace mucho, un miembro de nuestra parroquia fue de compras a una tienda local de Wal-Mart; y accidentalmente dejó su bastón en la tienda. Los Esfuerzos por localizar el bastón fueron en vano. Unos días más tarde, un empleado de la tienda llamó para decirle que su bastón había sido colocado con los bastones nuevos para la venta. El empleado se dió cuenta de que era un bastón usado y tenía el nombre de alguien en él! ¡Gracias a la bondad Cristiana de este empleado, nuestro miembro pudo recuperar su bastón!

¡FELICITACIONES A NUESTROS NUEVOS COMULGANTES!

Felicidades a los estudiantes que están recibiendo la Primera Comunión estos dos fines de semanas. Tenemos 213 estudiantes en nuestra parroquia, que están recibiendo el cuerpo y la sangre de Jesús por primera vez. ¡Se trata de un día increíble para nuestros hijos! Por favor ore por ellos y sus familias mientras reciben el poder de la Eucaristía. Tómese un minuto para ser testigo de la maravilla y asombro en los rostros de nuestros hijos que reciben el cuerpo y sangre de nuestro Señor Jesucristo por primera vez. En la última cena, Jesús "tomó el pan, y cuando había dado gracias, lo partió y les dio, diciendo: ' esto es mi cuerpo, que es para ustedes. Haced esto en conmemoración mía.' "(Lucas 22:19). Nosotros tomamos a Jesús en su palabra. En la Misa del domingo el sacerdote extiende las manos sobre el vino y el pan simplemente; y pide al Espíritu Santo para transformar el cuerpo y la sangre de Cristo. "No eres sólo un cuerpo. Eres una delicada composición de cuerpo y alma. Si no lo has hecho ya, un día vas a descubrir la necesidad de alimentar tu alma para poder tener una vida llena y feliz. Y cuando llegue ese día, Yo quiero que tu recuerdes el día de hoy, porque no hay nada mejor que llenar tu alma con la Eucaristía". (Adaptado de Decision Point)
