PASTOR'S CORNER

A Community of Witnesses

...In this age of misinformation and disinformation, it is easy to slip into ways of using words for personal advantage, with little or no concern for truth or for the harm we might do.

...In Pope Francis' homily, he turned to the Gospel, noting that the Apostles who followed Jesus after John the Baptist's proclamation that Jesus "is the Lamb of God who takes away the sins of the world" were only able to encounter Jesus thanks to John's witness.

"This is how it happens in our lives," he said, explaining that being a Christian is more than just following the Commandments or obeying all the rules.

Being a Christian "above all means bearing witness to Jesus," he said, adding that this is what the Apostles did when they went throughout the world, even testifying through their martyrdom....

..."To be a witness doesn't mean to be a Saint," but rather recognizing that "I'm a sinner, but Jesus is the Lord, and I bear witness to him. I try to do good every day, to correct my life, to go on the right path."

While the Apostles had many sins, Pope Francis noted that the only one they didn't have is to gossip and speak badly about each other.

When it comes to parish life, he said that "we are all sinners, but one community," and where there are gossipers, "a gossiping community is incapable of giving witness."

"I would say only this: do you want a perfect parish? Then no gossiping, no! If you have something to say to someone say it to their face, or to the pastor, but not among you," he said, explaining that what destroys a community, "like a worm, is gossip, from behind."

He then invited parishioners to make a commitment to hold their tongues whenever they feel tempted to gossip, because "a parish where there is no gossip is a perfect parish. It's a parish of sinners, yes, but of witness, and this is the witness given by the first Christians...."

Q A special blessing of throats occurs on the feast of St. Blaise, February 3.
What is the origin of this?

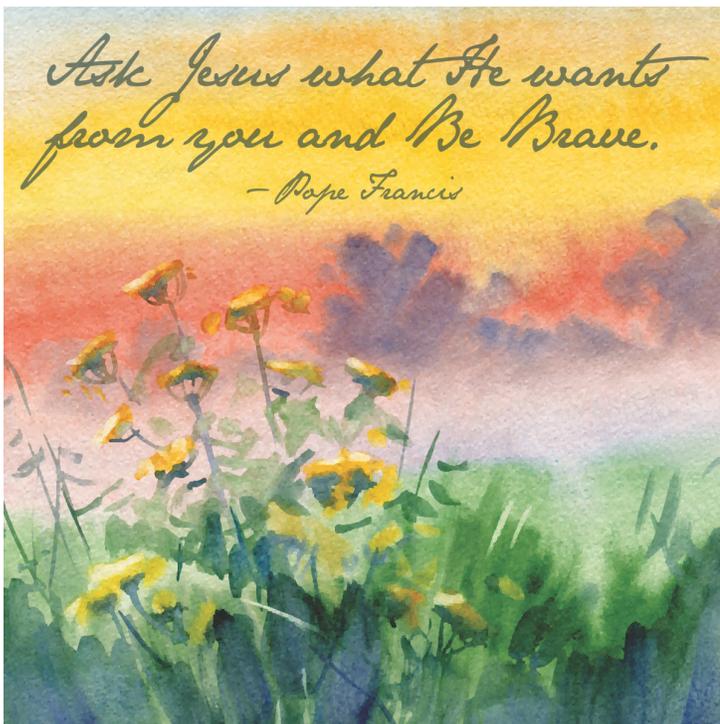

A St. Blaise, Biagio in Italian, Blasco or Blas in Spanish, was a bishop of Sebaste, Armenia, in modern Turkey, who was martyred for witnessing to the faith. He was tortured and beheaded for his beliefs by the local Roman governor around AD 316. This is all that is known about him, the rest being legend. We know much more about devotion to and the popularity of St. Blaise than historical facts.

The special blessing of throats associated with St. Blaise is due to a miracle attributed to him. While in prison, he miraculously saved a boy choking on a fish bone. Early in the sixth century, evidence exists in the Eastern Church that Blaise was prayed to for ailments of the throat. To this day, his feast is a holy day in the Eastern Church. In the ninth century, veneration of St. Blaise came to the Western Church and became very popular. Blessing of the throats with crossed candles began in the 1500s, the height of devotion to St. Blaise, and that blessing is still part of the devotion of the Catholic Church.

No matter what the facts are, St. Blaise is a constant reminder to us of God's care and concern for us in our weakness, sickness, and limited human existence. God's healing touch is with us always. St. Blaise's celebration is one of the ways in which we highlight and thank God for that care and concern.

Cultivate Quiet Moments

Part 1 of 3

As a busy mom, my default setting is work; it goes everywhere with me. But last week I blew it. I got unexpectedly stuck in a waiting room for four hours with nothing to do except file my nails. For five full minutes, I wallowed in the activity. After that I sat, like everyone else, taking solace in my phone. I texted a few people: "Help, I'm trapped!" Called others: "Call me back. Please, please, please." And tried to answer email: "As soon as home, will answer your question. Right now typing with one finger." Not much work got done, but I did a good job of faking myself out.

Three hours in, I spied my rosary in my purse. Praying the Rosary is on my daily to-do list. I admit that my first thought was Yes! I can check it off! As I prayed, however, a different feeling took over. The Rosary, with its meditation and repetition, has a way of slowing you down, quieting your mind, and reminding you that you're not as in charge as you think you are. I exited the noisy waiting room into the quiet hallway beyond to be with Jesus and Mary. To be continued... (Susie Lloyd, Catechist)

Take a moment to reflect on this point from 'The Prayer Process'AWARENESS. Revisit the times in the past 24 hours when you were and were not the best-version-of-yourself. Talk to God about these situations and what you learned from them.

We are a Stewardship Parish

The four pillars of stewardship:

Prayer, Formation, Service and Hospitality help parishioners witness, experience and live the stewardship way of life. These four pillars support the parish community and we are all called through our baptismal promises to contribute our time, talent and treasure to them.

Esquina del Padre

En el mundo competitivo de hoy, mucha gente no ve la justicia y la humildad como virtudes deseables. Pero Jesús enfatiza que las beatitudes son el plan de acción para nuestras vidas. Ser pobres en espíritu, humilde, tener sed de la justicia, ser misericordioso, con corazón puro, y ser creadores de paz --todas estas son marcas distintivas de un discípulo verdadero e hijo de Dios. Después de hacer estas cosas, sin embargo, el discípulo verdadero tiene que prepararse para la persecución. ¿Está listo para ser un discípulo verdadero?

Cultivando los momentos de silencio

Parte I de 3

Como toda madre ocupada, mí día a día es el trabajo; me acompaña a todas partes. Pero la semana pasada hubo un cambio en mis planes. Quedé inesperadamente forzada a estar en una sala de espera durante cuatro horas sin nada que hacer excepto limarme las uñas. Durante cinco minutos, estuve dando vueltas, pensando en que hacer. Después me senté, como todos los demás, y tome consuelo en mi teléfono. Envié mensajes a algunas personas: “ayuda, estoy atrapada!” Llame a otros: “Lláname por favor. Por favor, por favor, por favor.” Y trate de responder correos electrónicos: “tan pronto como hogar, responderé a tu preg.. ahora estoy escrib. con un dedo.” No conseguí hacer mucho trabajo, pero hice un buen trabajo en tratar de medio hacer algo.

Después de tres horas de estar ahí, vi que tenía un rosario en mi bolso. Rezar el rosario estaba en mis cosas pendientes por hacer. Admito que mi primera reacción fue. Perfecto! Puedo tachar esto de mis pendientes. Mientras rezaba, otro sentimiento se adueño de mí. El Rosario, con sus meditaciones y repeticiones tiene una manera de aquietarte, de silenciar tu mente, y de recordarte que no estás tan a cargo de las cosas como piensas. Me Salí del la bulliciosa sala de espera para y entre en un espacio más allá para pasar un tiempo con Jesús y María.

Toma un momento para reflexionar en este punto de ‘ El proceso de la oración’ Revisa en las últimas 24 horas cuando fuiste o no fuiste la mejor versión de ti mismo. Háblale a Dios sobre estas situaciones y de lo que aprendiste de ellas.
