Midwest Region of the Progressive National Baptist Convention Inc.

Reverend Elmer M. LeSure, Vice President at Large, Midwest Region

Deacon Lamont H. Young Sr., Vice President at Large, Laymen's Department

Sub-theme: "Laymen, Meditating on the Word of God" ~ Psalm 1:1-2

February 10, 2015

I greet you in the matchless name of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

As you may know, our Progressive National Baptist Convention Inc. 52nd Annual Session is rapidly approaching and will be held on April 6 - April 10, 2015. I hope everyone will join me in attending this event with enthusiasm, excitement, and prayerful hearts. I am excited that God has allowed me to be part of this Midwest region and more importantly this "Laymen's movement."

We, the Laymen's department, say thank you to all of our pastors and their congregations who make up this great Midwest region. We salute you, knowing that our session would not be successful without your counsel, moral, and financial support.

The Laymen's department will kick-off the week with our "Street Ministry" which is our witnessing event. We welcome anyone in our convention with open arms to participate with us in this soul-searching endeavor. Laymen, let us be intentional in our work for the harvest is plentiful but the labors are few.

My prayer is that God will continue to shower His blessings upon us through our churches and the Midwest region and that He will get all of the glory, honor, and praise due him.

Strengthening my brother,

Lamont H. Young Sr.

Deacon Lamont H. Young Sr.

Vice President at Large

Congress of Christian Education Classes and Descriptions

Class Schedule:

Tuesday, April 7: 2:00 p.m. – 5:30 p.m.

Wednesday, April 8: 7:30 a.m. – 10:30 a.m.

Thursday, April 9: 7:30 a.m. – 9:40 a.m.

Commencement: 9:50 a.m. – 10:50 a.m.

B104: How to Read and Study the Bible

Instructor: Rev. Keith Tyler, KY

This course is prepared to help Bible students understand the significance of studying the Bible meaningfully. It will help leaders and teachers lead Bible students to study for spiritual values which blend with their behavioral patterns.

2007: Turning Our Crises into Opportunity

Instructor: Rev. Nathan Schaffer, IL

This course will site the seven crises or adversities that the Old Testament Joseph experienced in his life. Students will learn how to build a foundation when crises arrive and react wisely to their difficulties. From Joseph example, one can learn how to turn their crises into opportunity.

421.2: Prayer

Instructor: Rev. Edward C. Turner, IN

As a disciple of Christ, prayer is essential and provides the opportunity to gain new strengths, new insights, and new affirmations on your daily journey with God. This class will help you to enhance your prayer life and order your steps by joining others in journaling, developing daily prayer concerns, and techniques to strengthen your prayer life.

141.7 Varieties of Music in the Black Church

Instructor: Bro. Wayne Evans, MO

All church music should foster a meaningful worship setting within the Christian fellowship. Both instructor and students of this class will explore the varieties of music that are presented in many black churches today. They will examine the kinds of music that presents a sacred meaning, ecstasy, or just an emotion.

149.4 Health Ministry

Instructor: Sis. C. Louise Brown, IL

The students will be prepared to work with the pastors in assessing health needs in the congregation and obtaining local health resources. The Biblical message of health and wholeness will be incorporated throughout the class. The New Standard of Practice for PNBC Church Nurses will be taught including First Aid, CPR and caring for the congregation in special times.

614 Ushering Ministry

Instructor: Sis. Ella Carr, IN

Ushers are stewards of the kingdom of Christ. This course seeks to lead students into an atmosphere in which they will visualize the sacredness of the role of the usher; to acquaint students with the basic principles of ushering and to provide opportunity for participating in the Congress General Assemblies.

2006: Does Your Faith Need a Make Over?

Instructor: Rev. Michael Scott, Sr., MI

This course will provide students with some biblical applications for nurturing and enhancing their faith in a practical and simplistic manner.

2005: God's Reply to Our Borrowed Anxieties

Instructor: Dr. Preston Winfrey, IL

This course presents strategies to encourage persons of all races, creeds, or nationalities to bring a halt to their cycle of worry. Worry is a self-created giant that has a crippling effect. The author utilizes Scriptures as a challenge is given to change the way one thinks about life by entrusting their worries and fears to God. Doing this enables the student to be lifted from the dungeons of fear, depression, and despair.

221: Children at Work

Instructor: Sis. Nadine N. Nunn, Esq., MO

This course is designed for children (between the ages of 3-6 and 7-12) in their study and understanding of the Bible. This course will also cite children of the Bible who were different and became leaders. Students will also learn how positive influence will strengthen their lives and their circle of friends in our society today. This class will be taught by two instructors [buddy system] with the older students acting as a buddy for the younger students.

900: Ministers' Seminar

Instructor/Facilitator: Rev. William Collins, IN

This seminar is designed for ministers and pastors with an invigorating biblical approach to all phases of ministerial life. It is an attempt to create an atmosphere of fellowship concern for problems that plague the ministry. This seminar will include preaching, lectures, discussion and dialogue. Stewardship of the ministry will also be addressed.
