

How to Join a Care Group at RCAC

We're so glad you're interested growing deeper in your faith by joining a committed, accountable fellowship group centred in Christ.

Our vision is for everyone at RCAC to be in groups that grow deeper in friendships and firmer in faith as disciples of Jesus.

In Care Groups, people come to know Christ and to experience His presence and power. By his Spirit, Christ ministers to us, through us to one another, so that people are cared for and encouraged to lead God pleasing lives.

Care Groups provide an opportunity for intimacy, mutual support, practical love and service, learning about the Christian faith, prayer, and sharing of what we see God doing in our midst. Community is developed and fostered, and people are nurtured, equipped and released for God's work in the world.

We have a number of groups presently, lead by faithful and caring leaders. To connect you with a group, we have a two step process.

First Step: Get to Know Each Other

We'd like to get to know you to best know how to connect you with one of our groups. And so, the first thing to do is to meet with us. We'd love to sit down with you over coffee or even on the phone. You're more than welcome to contact either Phil Lam (Care Group Deacon) or Pastor Jason Cheung. We'd love to hear from you.

We also have an online form for you to complete, to let us know your desire to join a group. Go to english.rcac.ca, "Connect," "Care Groups" and click "I Want to Join a Care Group."

In our get together, we want to personally let you know the purpose of Care Groups, and share how our groups serve as the back-bone of community life at RCAC. We also would like to know your story. Whether you are just curious and exploring Christianity, or you are a believer for many years, we'd like to simply know you better. This will aid us to help you connect with a group.

Second Step: Connect You to a Group

After our meeting, we'll consider all your needs and the current status of our groups. After this, we'll connect you with a Care Group leader and he or she would personally invite you to visit their group.

We're so thankful for your interest, and we pray you'll be connected with brothers and sisters in Christ soon.

May God guide our steps and graciously grow us for his glory.

Sincerely,

Phil Lam
