What is XFUGE:

XFuge on Mission group leaders have flexibility in their schedule

- Bible study in church groups, all together with XFuge lead host teaching or group leader can teach their own church group
- Ministry projects with your church group. You can choose a different type of ministry each day or stay with the same one all week. The site director will set up these sites for you and provide you with contact information and directions. You will lead your students on site.
- Afternoon free time

Note: The XFuge lead host will oversee all hosting for XFuge and XFuge on Mission. A host will also be assigned to each church group. Some hosts are responsible for more than one church depending on availability of staff and number of churches participating in XFuge and XFuge on Mission. If you need anything, you can contact them or the lead host. Please exchange phone numbers with your host and the lead host upon arrival at camp.
