Women's Ministry:

Coming Late Fall: A New Bible Study
from Best-Selling Author Beth Moore - The Quest
There is No Quest without Questions

The crooked punctuation mark at the end of a sentence speaks of curiosity, interest, and perhaps doubt. A question is an invitation to vulnerability, to intimacy. The Bible does not shy away from such an invite. Over and over we see the people of God asking questions of their Creator. We also see the God of the universe asking questions of His creation.

The Quest is a challenge to accept the invitation. In this six-week excursion with Jesus, Beth Moore uses questions from Scripture to lead you into intimacy with the One who knows you best. Learn to dig into the Word, to respond to the questions of God, and to bring your questions before Him. Let the crooked punctuation mark be the map that points you into a closer relationship with the Father.

Learn to pray to promote intimacy with God.

Explore questions and responses from the Bible.

Track your quest by journaling along the way.

Learn to read and respond to Scripture.

More information to come

A place to gather women and share a simple meal and dive deep with people over real stories and Christ centered conversations. A time for a whole lot of laughter – and maybe a few tears – but time spent that leaves us with glad hearts. Full hearts. Grateful hearts.

Every woman is invited to participate. Expect a call in the next month inviting you to join a group. If the time a group meets does not work within your schedule, please do not hesitate to request another group. Groups meet once a month for two hours. It is a great way to connect with other women in our church and to build new lasting friendships.

Please call or text Melinda Sweany if you have questions (707) 227-8399.

If you'd like to receive the regular newsletter from the Reeds to see what's going on in their world, please email DPREED77@gmail.com and include who you are and that you would like to receive the newsletter. Dennis would be glad to add you to the list.
