Welcome Guests!

Sis. Macey and I join the entire Royalwood family in welcoming you, our guest, to a great time of worship in the presence of God. This is a place where sins are forgiven, burdens are lifted, and tired hearts are rested. At Royalwood, you will discover that great preparations have been made to bring you and our Savior together to fellowship in a heavenly place. Sing with us, worship with us, become ONE of us...He awaits your praise!

Church-wide Auction - Saturday, 10/26. We are asking everyone to donate an item for the auction. Some suggestions – handmade items (quilts, blankets, wreaths, etc.), items that you currently have at home that are in great condition (electronics, yard equipment, exercise equipment, furniture, clothing). All of these items will go for a great price if they are in mint condition. Items need to be here no later than Wednesday, 10/2 – brought to the Gym (in a designated area).

If you are interested in helping sponsor a backpack for a needy child in our community, the donation is $25.00 / backpack. This will cover the purchase of the backpack, as well as the supplies to fill it. You can pay online and use the designated fund "Backpack Giveaway", or you may include your donation in the offering and note "Backpack Giveaway" on the envelope under OTHER. If you have any questions, please see Chad or Angela Parker. Thank you for helping make this outreach effort a great success!

Remember to set aside time with your family on Tuesday evening for prayer. Without prayer we cannot stay in the will of God; we must talk to Him to know His perfect will for our lives... Stay Connected!
