PROCEDURE FOR COMMUNION:

-In preparation for communion, the priest breaks the bread and the deacon fills the chalices while a Eucharistic Minister brings the ciborium to the altar from the tabernacle. In the absence of a deacon, another Eucharistic Minister fills the chalices and remains by the altar.

-The priest and deacon/Eucharistic Minister will receive communion, and then the Eucharistic Ministers beginning with the minister nearest to the altar servers will come to the altar one-by-one to receive the host from the priest and the chalice from the deacon/Eucharistic Minister. For Sunday masses, The first 2 EMs to receive the cup should proceed to the station near the music area. The third EM will receive a ciborium after taking from the cup and proceed to the opposite side of the stage. The fourth EM will take a cup and proceed to the opposite side of the stage. The fifth EM will receive a cup and then offer the cup to the altar servers before proceeding to the opposite side of the stage. The sixth and seventh EMs will receive cups and proceed to the front of the stage. The deacon/minister that distributes the cups takes the last ciborium and goes to the front of the stage. For the 5PM mass, please adjust accordingly, making sure that the minister with the cup that goes to the side opposite the music side offers the chalice to the servers.
