Procession to Kirk Hall

Call to Worship in Kirk Hall

(Note: Our call to worship is based on the three symbols of this Hall: the cross and compass that illustrate our mission statement, “Finding Direction by Following Jesus,” the high wooden cross reminding us who is our Savior, and the stained glass window depicting the descending dove, symbolizing the Holy Spirit.)
Leader: We are here to follow Jesus.
People: In following Jesus, we find direction for our lives.
Leader: We stand under the cross.
People: We serve under the lordship of the crucified Son of God.
People: Inspire ministry within these walls, and go with us when we leave this place to be your body in the world.
Leader: Come Holy Spirit.
People: Join with our spirits in our worship tonight.

All:
Holy, holy, holy! O Lord, God Almighty! Heaven and earth are full of Thy glory, heaven and earth are full of Thy glory!

All Men:
Holy, holy, holy! All the saints adore Thee, casting down their golden crowns around the glassy sea. Cherubim and seraphim, falling down before Thee, Who wert, and art, and evermore shalt be.
Choir: Holy, holy, holy! Though the darkness hide Thee; though the eye of sinfulness Thy glory may not see. Only Thou art holy; there is none beside Thee – perfect in power, in love and purity.
All: Holy, holy, holy! Lord God Almighty! All Thy works shall praise Thy name, in earth and sky and sea.
Choir: Holy, holy, holy! Merciful and mighty! God in three persons, blessed Trinity!
All: Holy, holy, holy! (Note: Within this house of worship, we grow in grace so as to be God’s servants in the world.) Tonight’s offering will go toward Habitat for Humanity’s “Disciple Build.”

K. Lee Scott
Chancel Choir, directed by Dr. Jeffrey Sandborg

All:
Now thank we all our God with heart and hands and voices, Who wondrous things has done, in Whom His world rejoices, Who from our mother’s arms has blest us on our way with countless gifts of love, and still is ours today.
Choir: O may this bounteous God through all our life be near us, with ever joyful hearts and blessed peace to cheer us: and keep us in His grace, and guide us when perplexed, and free us from all ills in this world and the next.
All: All praise and thanks to God the Father now be given, The Son, and Him who reigns, with them in highest heaven. The One eternal God, Whom earth and heav’n adore; for thus it was, is now, and shall be evermore. Amen.

A Litany of Dedication

Parousia Cited: Mark 12:30, Psalm 149, II Corinthians 4:7

Leader: God of wisdom and truth, we dedicate newly renovated classrooms as places for learning your word, equipping saints for the work of ministry; and building up the body of Christ.

People: Teach us to love you, O God, with all our heart, with all our soul, with all our mind, and with all our strength.

Leader: God of music and laughter, we dedicate the new Children’s Music Suite and Children’s Gallery as places where children will make a joyful noise to you, equipping saints for the work of ministry; and building up the body of Christ.

People: Sing to the Lord a new song; sing God’s praise! Let them praise God’s name with dance; let them sing God’s praise with drum and lyre! Let the faithful celebrate with glory.

Leader: God of welcome and hospitality, we dedicate Kirk Hall as a place for gathering as your family for food, fellowship, and worship, equipping saints for the work of ministry; and building up the body of Christ.

People: You call us to welcome friend and stranger, Lord. As you feed us at your table of welcome, may we, your earthen vessels, carry your treasure to the world.

Leader: Inspire us to think your thoughts after you, that our wills may be bound with your will that we will be obedient disciples of your Son, our Lord, Jesus Christ.

People: Trusting in Jesus Christ, we dedicate these new and renovated spaces in the name of the Father and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

*Hymn No. 321 The Church’s One Foundation

*Charge and Benediction Go to the World!

*Benedictory Response Hymn No. 295 Fanfare on “St. Gertrude”

Postlude Gordon Young

(Notes on the Postlude: The words were written by Sabine Baring-Gould in 1865, and the music was composed by Arthur Sullivan in 1871. Sullivan named the tune “St. Gertrude,” after the wife of a friend, at whose country home he composed the tune. The Salvation Army adopted the hymn as its most-favored procession. The hymn’s theme is taken from references in the New Testament to the Christian being a soldier for Christ (II Timothy 2:3, KJV): “Thou therefore endure hardness, as a good soldier of Jesus Christ.”)

You are dismissed. Please take this opportunity to tour the church and be greeted by the hosts located on each level of the building. They are eager to share their information with you, and refreshments are available at each station. Thank you for sharing this special evening with us.
